Five years to wait, while others
Are dancing the dance of yeath.
And the one, perhaps, you are trusting
Is breaking his vows, forsoothi 'I shall wait for my love, my darling; Who her sailed for over the sea, Five years, or ten, or twenty,"
Said the blue-eyed maid to me. So she wrote her tove-letters,

Or tended her garden flowers, Or wetched the restless billows Ou the beetling cliff for hears; While she turned her entters pining Away from the cettage door, And waited, patiently waited, One long year or more.

"The very weary waiting,"
Said the blue-eyed maid to me,
And she glanced at her last new enitor And then at the restlem sea;
And she glanced at the roses fading
In her garden fair and bright,
Twice come, twice gone since he left her,
Two years before that night. And she married her last new oultor

And she wrote to her absent lover
Ou the day that she was wed,
"She hoped in would not suffer,
That the shock would soon be o'er," And the answer soon informed her He had merried a year before.

LED ASTRAY.

TRANSLATED FROM THE PRENCE OF OCTAVE FEUILLET.

28711 SEPTEMBER.

I had the satisfaction of discovering in the library of the marquis the historical documents I needed. They form, indeed, a part of the ancient archives of the Abbey, and have a epecial interest tor the family of Malonet It was one William Mislonet, a very noble man and a knight, who, about the middle of the twelfth century, with the consent of Messlenre his sons, Hughes, Foulgues, John, and Thomsons, Hughes, Foulgues, John, and founded the Abbey in favor of the order of the Benedictine monks, and for the salvation of his attention, while however, "observing the dictine monks, and for the salvation of his acceptors, among other dues and privileges, the fee-simple of the lands of the Abbey, the tithe of all its floaks three and privileges, the salvation of his acceptors, among other dues and privileges, the fee-simple of the lands of the Abbey, the tithe of all its floaks three and privileges are applied to the lands of the Abbey, the tithe of all its floaks three and privileges are applied to the lands of the land revenues, half the wool of ite flocks, three gray eyes sparkling like glowing ashes; he tode of wax to be received every year at was laughing loud, grinning, stamping, Monnt Saint-Michel-on the sea; then the river, the moors, the woods, and the mill, et molendinum in codeum situ. I took suddenly to me, handed me a whist card, pleasure in following through the wretched and taking me aside:
| latin of the time the description of this fa| "What the deuce has got into you?" he miliar landscpe. It has not changed.

The foundation charter bears date 1145. Subscapent chartere show that the Abbey century, of a sort of patriarchate over all the only weakness of that gallant man; she reaches the fatal goal, that woman the institutions of the order of Saint Ben- every one respects it here. Do likewise, I will fall from the nothingness of her agiedict that were then in existence in the beg of you."

Province of Normandy A general chap From the weakness of that gallant man ter of the order was held there every year, it results that his wife is condemned in sopresided over by the Abbot of Rozel, and ciety to perpetual quarantine. The lightat which some ten or a dozen other con-vents were represented by their highest an additional attraction for the lightning dignitaries. The discipline, the labore, but men hesitate to risk their fives with-the temporal and spiritual management ontany prospect of possible compensation. of all the Benedictines of the province and we have here a man who threatens were here controlled and reformed with a you at least with a public scandal, not only severity, which the minutes of these little severity which the minutes of these little before harvest, as they say, but even be-councile attest in the noblest terms. These fore the seed has been fairly sown. Such ec nes, replete with dignity, took place in a state of affairs manifestly discourages very rich, and this is apt to divert atten-tion. Moreover the vortex of worldly dis-and beseeching looks, that seem to be ever eipation that rages in the chatean is not without occasionally doing some prejudice nie into temptation?" to my independence. Finally my worthy hosts frequently take away with one hand other: lika many persons of the world, they have not a very clear idea of the de gree of connected occupation which deserves the name of work, and an hour or two of reading appears to them the utmost extent of labor that a msn can bear in a day. "Consider yourself wholly free," Monsieur de Malouet tells me every morning; 'go up to your hermitage; work at your

An hour later he is knocking at my it more than two hours! You are killing enspicious there!" yourself, my friend. However, you are free. By the way, my wife is in the par-lor, when you have done you'll go and

"Most undonbtedly I will." "But only when you have entirely done,

And he goes off for a hunt or a ride by iefied that I shall be unable to do any further work of value, I soon resolve to go and join Madamede Malouet, whom I find deeply engaged in conversation with the parish pricet, or with Jacquement (of Born) these giddy once and their conduct even priest, or with Jacquemart (of Bordeanx). She has disturbed me, I am in Such is the manner in which the middle of the day usually paeses off.

In the morning, I ride on horseback with the marquie, who is kind enough to Paris in order to have the ugly spectacle spare me the crowd and tumnit of the gen- of these provincials let loose against what cral riding parties. In the evening, I take they call vice, namely, youth, elegance, a hand at whist, then I chat awhile with distinction, charm—in a word, all the the ladies, and I try my best to cast off at qualities which the worthy ladies possess heir feet my bear's skin and reputation; for I dialike to display any eccentricity of Nevertheless, with whatever disgust these my own, this one rather more so than any | chaste vixens inspire me for the virtue they other. There is a grave disposition, when pretended to uphold (O virtue! how many carried to the point of stiffness and ill-grace toward women, something coarsely pedantic, that is unbecoming in great talents with them on one point, and to admit that and ridiculous in lesser ones. I retire af- one of their victime at least gives an apterward, and work rather late in the library. That's the best of my duty. society at the chateau ie usually always numerous at this season, and a lew of these entertainments on a grand scale the name of Countess de Palme, and the is, above all, to celebrata the visit of Monnickname of the Little Countess: a rather eieur de Malonel's only daughter, who ill-fitting nickname, by the way, for the none. I comes every year to spend the autumn lady is not small, but simply slender and chance?"

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

"I COME. THE HERALD OF A NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK."

VOL. 1.

HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY., MARCH 17, 1875.

with her family. She is a person of stat-uesque beauty, who amuses herself with years of age; she is a widow; she spends queenly dignity, and who communicates with ordinary mortals by means of contemptnons monosyllableenttered in a deep bass voice. She married some twelve years ago, an Englishman, a member of the diplomatic corps, Lord A—, a personage equally handsome and impassive as herself. He addresses at intervals to his wife an English monosyllable, to which the latter replies imperturbably with a French monoeyllable. Nevertheless, three little lorde, worthy the pencil of Lawrence, who strut majestically around this Olympian conple, attest between the two natures a secret intelligence which escapes the vulgar observer.

A scarcely less remarkable couple comes over to us daily from a neighboring chateau. The husband is one Monsieur de Breuilly, formerly an officer in King Charles X 's body-guards, and a boson friend of the marquis. He is a very live-ly old man, still quite fine-looking, and wearing over close-cropped gray hair, a hat too small for his head. He has an odd, though perhaps natural, way of scan-ning his words, and of speaking with a de-gree of deliberation that eeems affected. His would be quite pleasant, however, were it not that his mind is constantly tortured by an ardent jealousy, and by no less ardent apprehension of betraying his weaknese, which, nevertheless is a glaring and obvioue fact to every one It is difficult to understand how, with such a disposition and a great deal of common sense, he has committed the signal error of marrying, at the age of fifty-five, a young and pretty woman, and a creole, I helieve, in the bargain.

"Monsieur de Breuilly!" said the Marquie, as he presented me to the punctilious gentleman, "nry best friend who will in-fallibly become yours also, and who, quite as infallibly, will cut your throat if you attempt to show any attention to his wife."

"Mon Dieu! nry dear friend," replied Monsieur de Breuilly, with a laugh that was anything lut joyful, and accentuating each word in his peculiar style, "why rep-resent me to this gentleman as a Norman

"Into me? why, nothing "
"Ilave I not warned you? It's quite a of Rozel as in poseession, in the thirteenth serious matter. Look at Breuilly! It is that Capitulary Hall now so shamefully the most enterprising, and it is quite rare Aside from the archives, this library is seats on her right and on her left, despite eaying, "Mon Dieu! will no one ever lead

You would doubiless think that the evident neglect in which the poor wife lives the liberty they have granted me with the ought to he, for her hushand, a motive of security. Not et all! His ingenious manla manages to discover in that fact a fresh motive of perplexity.

"My friend," he was saving vesterday to Monsieur de Malouet, "you know that l am not more jealous than any one else; but without being Orosmane, 1 do not pre-tend to be George Dandin. Well! one thing troubles me, my friend; have you noticed that apparently no one pays any attention to my wife?

"Parblen! if that's what troubles you-"Well! are we hard at work?"
"Of course it is; you must admit that it is not natural. My wife is pretty; why don't they pay attention to her ae well as to the other ladies? There is something

Fortunately, and to the great advantage of the social question, all the young wo-men who reside in turn at the chateau are not guarded by dragons of that caliber. A few even, and smong them two or three Parlsians out for a holiday, display a freedom of manner, a love of pleasure, and an And he goes off for a hunt or a ride by the seaside. As to myself, preoccupied with the idea that I am expected, and satthet I have not the highest opinion of that these giddy ones; and their conduct even appears to me the very ideal of truth and her way, and we smile pleasantly to each sincerity, when I hear nightly certain pious matrons distilling against them, amid low and vulgar gossip, the venom of the basest envy that can swell a rural heart. Moreover, it is not always necessary to leave no more, or have perhaps never possessed. crimes ars committed in thy name!), I am compelled, to my great regret, to agree pearance of justice to their reprobation and to their calumnies. The Angel of Kindness himself would hida his face in made up of the marquis' gnests, who are presence of this complete specimen of dissipation, of turbulence, of futility, and fipersons of the neighborhood. The object nally of worldly extravagance that bears years of age; she is a widow; she spends the winter in Paris with her sister, and the summer in an old Norman manor-house, with her aunt, Madame de Ponthrian.-Let me get rid of the aunt first.

This aunt, who ie of very ancient nobilty, is particularly noted for the fervo: of her hereditary opinions, and for her strict devotion. Those are both claims to consideration which I admit fully, eo far as I am concerned. Every solid principle and every sincere sentiment command in these days a peculiar respect. Unfortunately, Madame de Pontbrian seems to be one of those intensely devont persons who are but indifferent Christians. She is one of those who, reducing to a few minor observances, of which they are ridiculously proud, all the duties of their religious or political faith, impart to both a harsh and nateful appearance, the effect of which is not exactly to attract proselytes. The outer forms, in all things, are sufficient for her conecience; otherwise, no trace of humility. Her genealogy, her assiduity to church, and her annual pilgrimages to the shrine of an iffustrioue exile (who would probably he glad to dispense with the sight of her countenance), inspire to this lad such a lofty idea of herself and such a profound contempt for her neigh-bor, that they make her positively unso-ciable. She remains forever absorbed in the latrain worship which she believes line to herself. She deigns to speak hut to God, and He must indeed be a kind and merciful God if He listens to her.

Under the nominal patronage of this mystic duenna, the Little Counters enjoye an absolute independence, which she uses to excess. After spending the winter in Paris, where she kills off regularly two herses and a coachman every month for the sole gratification of waiting ten minntes every night in half a dozen dif-ferent balls, Malame de Palme feels the n cessity of seeking rest in the peace of rural fife. She arrives at he aunt'e, she jumpe npon a horse, and she starts at full gallop. It matters not which way she goes, provided ehe keeps going. Most generally she comes to the chutean de Melonet, where the kind-hearted mistrese of the house manifests for her an amount of predeliction which I can hardly understand. Familiar with men, impertinent with women, the Little Countess offers a broad mark to the most indescreet homage of the tormer, and to the jealone hostility of the latter. Indifferent to the outrages of public opinion, she seems ready to as-pire to the coarsest incense of gallantry; out what she requires above all things in noise, movement, a whirl, wordly pleasure carried to its most extreme and most extravagant fury; what she requires every morning, every evening, and every night, is a break neck-chase, which she conducts with frenzy; a reckless game, in which she may break the bank; an unbridled German, which she leads until dawn. A stoppage of a single minute, a moment of reet, of meditation and reflection, would kill her. Never was an existence so busy and so ldle; never a more unceasing and nore sterile activity. Thus she goes through life harriedly and without a halt, graceful, careless, busy and ignorant as the horse she rides. When nation into the nothingness of eternal rest, vithout the shadow of a eerions idea, the faintest notion of duty, the lightest cloud of a thought worty a human being having ever grazed, even in a dream, the narrow brain that is sheltered behind her pure, miling and stupid brow. It might be said that death, at whatever age it may overtake her, will find the Little Countess ust as she left the cradle, if it were possible to suppose that she has preserved its nnocence as well as she retained its proound penrility.

Has the madcap a soul? The word othingness has escaped me. It is indeed difficult for me to conceive what might survive that body when it has once lost he vain fever and frivolous breath that seem alone to animate it.

I know too well the miserable ways of the world, to take to the letter the accurations of immorality of which Madame de Palme is here the object on the part of tha witches.as also on the part of some of her rivats who are silly enough to envy her ocial success. It is not in that respect us you may understand, that I treat her with so much severity. Men, when they show themseves unmerciful for certain errors, are too apt to forget that they have all, more or less, speut part of their lives seeking to bring them about for their own benefit. But there is in the feminine ype which I have just sketched something more shocking than immorality itself, which, however, it is rather difficult to separate from it. And so, notwith standing my desire of not making myself conspicuous in anything, I have been unable to take upon myself to join the throng of admirers whom Madanie de Palme drags after her triumphal car. I know ot whither.

'Le tyran dans se conr remarqua mon absence. am sometimes tempted to believe it, from the glances of astonishment and scorn with which I am overwhelmed when we meet: but it is more simple to attribute these hostile symptoms to the natural antipathy that separates two crentures as dissimilar as we are. I look at her at times, myself, with gaping surprise which must be excited in the mind of any thinking being by the monstrosity of such a psychological phenomenon. In that way we are even.

I ought rather to say we were even, for we are really no longer so, since a rather cruel fittle adventure that happened to me last night, and which constitutes in my account-current with Madame de Palme a considerable advance, which she will find it difficult to make up. I have told you that Madaine de Malouet, through know not what refinement of Christian charity, manifested a genuine prediliction for the Little Countess. I was talking with the marquise last evening in a corner of the drawing-room. I took the liberty of telling her that this prediliction, coming from a woman like her, was a bad example; that I had never very well understood, for my part, that passage of the Holy Scriptures in which the return of a eingle sinner is celebrated above the constant merit of a thousand just, and that this had always appeared to me very discouraging for the just.

"In the first place," answered Madame de Malonet, "the just do not get discouraged, and, in the next place, there are none. Do you faucy yourself one, by "Certainly not; I am perfectly well crowd of joyous companious and pleasant aware of the contrary. Well, then, where do you get the right of judging your neighbors so severely?"

"I do not acknowledge Madame de Palme as my neighbor." "That's convenient! Madame de Pslme, sir, has been badly bronght up, badly married, and always spoift; but, believe me, she is a genuine rough diamoud." "I only see the roughness."

"And rest assured that it only requires a skillful workman-I mean a good husband-to cut and polish it."

"Allow me to pity that future lapida-

Madame de Malouet tapped the carpet with her foot, and manifested other signs of impatience, which I knew not at first how to interpret, for she is naver out of humor; but suddenly a thought, which I took for a luminous one, occur in my mind. I had no doubt that I had at last discovered the weak side and only failing in that charming old woman. She was me eometimes that we possess for thought possessed with the mania of match-mak- a species of pagan worship to which He ing, aud, in her Christian anxiety to snatch the Little Countess from the abyss of perdition, she was secretly meditating to hurl me into it with her, unworthy though I Penetrated with thie modest conviction, I kept upon a defensive that seems to me, at the present moment, perfectly ridiculous.

"Mon Dieul" said Medame de Malouet, because you doubt her learning! * * *."
"I do not doubt her learning," I said; I doubt whether she knows how to

"But, in short, what fault do you find with her?" rejoined Madame de Malouet in a singularly agitated tone of voice.

I determined to demolish, at a single stroke, the matrimonial dream with which the meantime, retain, for my saks, that I supposed the Marchioness to be deluding hereelf.

"I find fault with her," I replied, "for giving to the world the spectacle, supremely irritating even for a profane like me, of triumphant nullity and haughty vice. I am not worth much, it is true, and I have no right to judge, but there is in me, as well as in any theatrical audience, a certain sentiment of reason and morality that rises Indignation in presence of personages wholly devoid of common sense or virtue, and that protests against their trinmph."

The old lady's indignation seemed to

"Do you think that I would receive her, if she decerved all the stones which slan-der casts at her?"

"I think it impossible for you to be lieve any evil." "Bah! I assure you that you do no show in this case any evidence of pene-tration. These love-stories which are attration. tributed to her are so little like her! She e a child who does not even know what it is to lovel" "I am convinced of that, madame. Her common-placs coquetry is sufficient evidence of that. I am even ready to swear that the allurements of the imagination or the impulse of passion are wholly for-eign to her errors, which thus remain without excuse."

"Oh! mon Dieu!" exclaimed Madame know her better than you do. I assure you that beneath his appearance most too frivolous, l admit-she possesses in fact as much heart as she does sense.'

"That is precisely what I think, madame: as much of one as the other. "Abl that ie really intolerable!" mur-mured Madame de Malouet, dropping her arme in a disconsolate manner.

At the same moment I saw the curtains that half covered the door by the side of which we sat shake violently, and the Little Countess, leaving the hiding place where she had been confined by the gencies of I know not what game, showed herself to us for a moment in the aperture of the door, and returned to join the group of players that stood in the adjoining par lor. I looked at Madame de Malouet:

'Whatl she was therel' "Of course she was. She heard us. what's more, she could see us. I made all the signs I could, but you were

I remained somewhat embarrassed. I remained somewhat embarrassed. I pistol, whirled around only in time to see regretted the harshness of my words; for, in attacking so violently this young per—little above and behind the left ear. son, I had yielded to the excitement of controversy much more than to a aentiment of serious animadversion. In point of fact she is indifferent to me, but it's a the attention of our people at once, and a little too much to hear her praised. "And now what am I to do?" I said to Madame de Malouet. She reflected for a moment, and replied with a slight shrug of the shoulders: "Ma foil nothing; that's the best thing you can do.'

have adonted

overflow; thue the little unpleasantness of hie pistol. He continued to run in the this scene seems to have intensified this direction of his home at the Shirley feeling of ennni which has scarce left me House, and on reaching the pavement alsince my advent into this abode of joy. This continuous gayety, this restleee agitation, this racing and dancing and dining. this ceaseless merrymaking and the eternal round of festivity importune me to the pavement. He was picked up and carpoint of disgust. I regret bitterly the ried into his bed-room and medical aid time I have wasted in reading and investigations which in no wise concern my of- allow a minute examination, and the exficial mission, and have but little ad- tent of the injury was unknown. A shotvanced its termination; I regret the en- hole was discovered penetrating the scalp, gagements which the kind entreaties of but further than that nothing was known. my hosts have extorted from my weakness; I regret my vale of Tempe; above all, Paul, I regret you. There are certainly in this little social center a sufficient number of superior and kindly die- Bashani's wounds being unknown, a poeed minds to form the elements of the guard was placed at his house, and up to pleasantest and even the most elevated re- | nine o'clock he was resting quietly enough, lations; but these elements are fairly sub-merged in the worldly and viligar throng, and can only be eliminated from it with diagnosis, from his continual relusal to much trouble and difficulty, and never have his wound examined. without admixture. Mousicur and Mad-Early yesterday morning one of his atame de Malouet. Monsieur de Brenilly tending physicians called professionally a even, when his insane jealousy does not little after curriss, and discovered that he deprive him of the use of his faculties, had eluded the vigilance of his guard and certainly possess choice minds and hearts; but the mere difference of age opens an abyss between us. As to the had escaped. He immediately informed Sheriff Pace, who was at the Shirley House, of Basham's absence, and without delay parties were summoned and disyoung men and men of my own age whom meet here, they all march with more patched in all directions to secure Bashor less eager step in Madame de Palme's am's arrest. It is not within our prov-wake. It is enough that I should decfine ince to forestall public opinion by invoto follow them in that path, to cause king vengeance or adverting to the legal consequences. We have discharged them to manifest towards me a coolness akin to apathy. My pride does not at-tempt to break that ice, though two or affair. our duty in a simple recital of the terrible

Mr. Hawkins, who was so euddenly three among them appear well gifted, and reveal instincts superior to the life they hurled into eternity, was about sixty years ter, you and I, youthful Paul, than this all who knew him,

NO. 11. THE COURT-HOUSE TAX.

viveurs, or are we simply different from them? Like ourselves, they possess honesty and honor; like ourselves, they have neither virtue nor religion properly so-called. So far, we are equal. Our taetes alone and our pleasures differ; and all their preoccupatione turn to the lighter ways of the world, to the cares of gallantary and material activity; ours are almost Pertinent and Timely Suggestions for the Consideration of the Taxpayers of Ohio County. EDITOR HERALD:-I ask the people of EDITOR HERALD:—I ask the people of Ohio county if they have not paid the court-house tax long enough? There has heen collected from them, np to Tast January, the sum of $51,824 II for court-house purposes, under a special tax law. The court has assessed a tax for this year of 15 cents on the $100 worth of property, and 50 cents on the head, which will bring in about $7,000 or $8,000. This will bring the aggregate up to pear $60,000; and even the aggregate up to near $60,000; and even hess bonds, however, is for the road and bridge debt; but a tax is also levied under a special tax law for roads and bridges, and this is 10 cente on the $100 in addi ry and material activity: ours are almost exclusively given up to the exercise of thought, to the talents of the mind, to the works, good or evil, of the intellect. In the light of human truth, and according to common estimation, it is doubtful whether the difference in this particular is wholly in our favor; but in a more ele-vated order, in the moral order, and, so to speak, in the presence of God, does that superiority hold good? Are we merely yielding, as they do, to an inclination that leads us rather more to one side than to another? What is in the eyes of God the merit of intellectual life? It seems to attaches no value, and which perhaps even offends llim. More frequently, however, I think that He wishes as to maks use of thoughts, were it even to be turned against Him, and that he accepts an homage all the quiverings of that nohle instrument of joy and torture which He has placed within us Is not sadness, in periods of doubt and anxiety, a speciee of religion? I trust so. We are, you and I, comewhat like those poor dreaming sphinxes who have been asking in vain for so many centuries, from the solitades riddle. Would it be a greater and more guilty folly than the happy carelessnes of the Little Countess? We shall see. In groundwork of melancholly upon which you weave your own gentle mirth; for, thank Godl you are not a pedant; you can live, you can laugh, and even laugh aloud; but thy soul is sad unto death, and that is only why I love unto death thy

Continued next week.

MURBER AT GLASGOW.

Killing of A. L. Hawkins and Attempt ed Suicide of J. M. Basham.

From the Giesgow Times, 11th.

o'clock, p. m., that has ever stained the record of our county's history, resulting in the almost immediate killing of Mr. A.

lars. His securities, comprising a number of the most substantial and best citizens of this county, have recently been reof their property as security for Basham.

Mr. Hawkins, who was one of the sufferers, had become so outraged over the calamity that had befallen him in his old ags, that he had taken legal steps to have Basham prosecuted for embezzlement, of looking after the settlement of the matter if possible, or to insist on the prosecu-tion in case of lailnre to obtain satisfaction. Basham failing to adjust the matter satisfactorily, he was arrested by our town marshai, Mr. James Murrell, and he, Basham and Hawkine were resting for some purpose in tha portico of the county clerk's office. Basham and Hawkins were engaged in a quiet conversation about the matter, and were apparently entirely free from unusual excitement.

Mr. Hawkins sat down on the bench on the outer edge of the portico and was lean-ing forward without a suspicion of harm or violence, and Mr. Murrell had turned with his face momentarily away from the parties, and hearing the sharp click of a

Hawkins without a murmur fell elowly forward and without an effort sank to the floor. The report of the pistol attracted great crowd rushed for the court-house the fatal eliot, immediately made a de-monstration of warning to Murrell, and leaped off the end of the portico to the ground, a distance of five or six feet, and began to make frantic efforts to shoot him-most immediately in front of the lower portion of the Shirley House, on Washington street, he again put his pistol to hie head and fired, falling heavily on the summoned, but he persistently refused to Mr. Hawkins was carried to the Glasgow House, and expired in about an hour, remaining in a perfectly uncon-scious state until he died. The nature of

The least breath causes a full cup to self, but made several failures to discharge from every direction. Basham after firing fraternal soul.

The duty of the county court was to appoint a Commissioner and establish a sinking fund, and require the Sheriff every year to pay the court house tax money into his hands, and let him either redeem the bonds or put the money at interest, but instead of doing this, they would let large amounts lay over in the Sheriff's hands from one year to another, without Such dancing was not known in these tion to the court-house tax.

I ask the people of Ohio county, in all

If all deadly fevers were called by that old fashioned name, "the plagne," we should more readily realize the danger arising from the neglect of eanitary preventions. In the middle of tha last century, London was alarmed by the rumor that the plague had broken out in a certain hospital. Physicians immediately published a denial of the report, but, in the meantime, Londoners had provided themselves with disinfectants, and the demand for rue and wormwood in Covent-garden market on one morning advanced the prisces of those articles almost fifty per cent. One of the most appalling and nnex-pected tragedies occurred in this place day before yesterday, about four and a half L. Hawkins, of Glasgow Junction, by a pistol shot inflicted at the hands of Mr. John M. Basham, of this place, and the subsequent immediate attempt of Basham market on one morning advanced the prisces of those articles almost fifty per cent., and the gardeners' ervants were employed all the day in carrying those commodities to market. A similar papic with regard to fever and diptheria, at the precent time, might not come amiss here in the New World. A like rush for soap and sernbing brushes would probably prove, in tha end, a very wholesome "scare." Panics, of course, are at all times to be deplored, but a moderate panic that will alarm that to commit suicide.

The origin of the deplorable calamity is traced to Basham's conduct as sheriff during the past two or three years, during which time he has been defaulter to the State and to individuals, in his official caracteristics. pacity, to an amount variously estimated from twenty-five to forty thousand dolbut a moderate panic that will alarm that them for saying that ain is ein; nor think people into greater cleanliness, a more because some other sine are blacker than de Malouet, clasping her hande, "do husblishe is a poor, forsaken child! I duced to almost penury by the sacrifice stringent sanitary law, and a closer regard that of dancing that therefore they should measures, is at all times ficial and advantageous. A Searlet-Bat.

This is the latest schoolboy composition:

But I am making this articla too long and will close by concurring heartily with and siphor to slide on the ice and traid off one sentiment found in the last paragraph an old nife if I have one, in summer to of the above mentioned sermon. pick wild flours and strawberrys and to get out of work hot days, some boys has to go to school to get out their mother's road, but I would rather stay in winter than to go too miles and set by a cold stove and freze my toes. I like to go to school to see the teacher scold the big girls when they cut up. Some goes to school to fool but I go to study when we are old we can't go to school and then we feel sorry that we fooled when we was young and went to school. I don't get no time to fool anyway for I have enough to do when it comes to my geography."

A little six-year-old girl in monroe went into a store whera her father was the other day, and slyly approaching him, said: "Papa, won't you buy me a new dress?" "Whet, buy you a new dress, Sneie?" "Yea, papa, won't you?" "Well, I'll see; I'll see; I'll speak fo your mother it comes to my geography."

Hon. J. B. McCreary, who ie seeking the Democratic nomination for Governor spent a few days in this place Tuesday looking up friends and forming new acquaintances. He is the shrewdest eleconeerer of any of the gubenatorial candidates. Gen. Williams is too ontepoken; and Col. Johnston is carrying the "press," whilst McCreary is quietly going over the field knocking the persimmons. - Gallatin

A Rome (N. Y.) girl worked over two hours digging a path through the snow to the parlor door from the gate, and then her chap did not come. She keepe a kettle of water boiling on the kitchen stove now, proposing to give him a warmer recention than usual when he does come.

American astronomers state, as a result of the observations made at the late transit of Venus, that the sun is 88,443,726 at Devil's Table, in Africa, and has taken miles from the earth, or 6.926,274 miles it to Paris. less than previously estimated.

At Palermo, Sicily, recently, just after the execution of a man lor murder, a quarrel broke ont between a father and son who had put up the scaffold, and the son etabled his father to the heart.

A vonng man who knew all about it have adopted.

There is one question I sometimes ask of myself on that subject: are we any hetch of myself on that subject: are we any hetch of myself on that subject: are we any hetch of myself on that subject are we are myself on that subject are we are myself on that a first is a fool who delights in fooling that myself on that a first is a fool who delights in fooling that myself on the myself of myself on the myself on the myself on the myself of myself on m states that his experience has taught him

ADVERTISING RATES.

For shorter time, at proportionale retes.
One inch of space constitutes a square.
The matter of yearly advertisements changed quarterly free of charge. For further particu-

lers, addresss
JEO. P. BLORETT & Co., Publishers,

For the Hertford Heralds

DANCING.

The Other Side of the Question.

MR. EDITOR: In the last issue of the tnde as well as some other places we know of. As to the animal referred to, we are not well enough acquainted with then our court-house debt will not be paid, for the county has bonds outstanding to the amount of near $17,000. A part of it to know of its claim to superiority over other quadrupeds, but we would enproce that it the claim exists, it is owing to the beautiful noise which it makes in singing rather than to the length of his ears.

But the next paragraph. "In dancing per sa, there is no harm nuder heaven.

No where in his word does God denounce large amounts lay over in the Sheriff's hands from one year to another, without interest. For instance, $1,176 21 laid from January, 1868, to January, 1869, without interest; the next year, $2,052 42; the next, $4,649 75; the next, $8,282 43; and the next, $11,439 17—thus losing to the county, $1,655 84 interest at 6 per cent, and the result is the county has now outstanding bonds on which she is paying interest at the usurious, ruinous rate of 10 per cent.

I ask the people of Ohio county, in all I ask tha people of Ohio county, in all carnestness, to turn their attention to their county finances, and elect euch men Juatices of the Peace as will endeavor to bring np the credit of the county, so that, if she has to borrow money, she can get it for 6 per cent., and not be compelled to resort to the infamous 10 per cent. conventional interest law, which is rnining the country.

McH.

Soap and Water.

If all deadly fevers were called by that

If all deadly fevers were called by that

say nothing against it. These flings at ministers, Mr. Editor, whether editorially or in lectures, are, to say the least of it, in Saye the Richmoud (Va.) Whig: "Yes-terday morning, early, as Mr. Page, city gas inspector, was going but his office at But to proceed, "The men and women the city hall, he was surprised to see what looked at first lika a red bird. Upon catching it the creature gave him a severe bite upon the hand, which caused him to drop it with a feeling akin to disgust. It proved to be a crimson-colored bat, something which no man in this part of the world ever saw before. The color of the bat excited surprise, but more closer of the chart and perpetraters of church bickerings and outer the color of the bat excited surprise, but more closer of the chart of church bickerings and outer the color of the bat excited surprise, but more closer of the chart of church bickerings and outer the color of the bat excited surprise, but more closer of the chart of church bickerings and outer the color of the bat excited surprise but more closer. of the bat excited surprise, but npon closer examination Mr. Page was astonished to discover that it had but one eye, and that in the center of the forehead. He earth, they are never guilty of such crimes, placed it in a box, and, etrange to say, it they are the ones who, by their godly does not appear to be frightened in its lives, conversation, and acts are lifting naw home. Many persons called to see it yesterday, among them several gentlement well versed in ornithology, and all "Follow ms, as I follow Christ." Dothey? averred that they had never seen or heard of anything like this bat. It is the intention of Mr. Page to send it to the Smithsonian Inetitution at Washington."

Nobic Boy:

This is the latest schoolbox composition:

Tollow ms, as I follow Christ. Detheyr I have not seen it. Wa think in fact that when "The fiddle squeaks, and the dancers trip their merry rounds," they do "offend God." especially if the merry rounds are made up of the waltz and kindred dances.

Youthful Diplomacy.

A little six-year-old girl in Mouros extent rapidly spread over that little conn tenance, but a thought suddenly etruck her, and with a smile she looked up into her father's face and said, "Well," if you do speak to mamua about it, do it easy, or she may want the new dress here self!" The father at once saw the point, and the new dress was purchased.—Littleton (Mass.) Republic.

"Mr. Smithers, how can you sleep so? The eun has been up these two hours." Well, what if he has?" said Smithers. "He goes to bed at dark, while I'm up till after midnight."

A happy father at Woonsocket, Rhode lsland, is described as having been presented with "twenty-seven pounds of

Francis Guerin found a diamond valued at 7,000,000 france in an abandoned mina

Greatness stands upon a precipice, and if prosperity carries a man ever so little over his poise it overbears and dashes him to pieces. A man and a woman at Hartlord, Conn., have just finished a series of 1,000 games of crithage, begun in October, and the woman won 502 of them.

A petrified butterfly was found in a Dubque quarry the other day, and aft the delicate outlines were as perfect as in life.

JOHN P. BARRETT, JOHN L. CASE, WALLACE GRUELLE. WALLACE GRUELLE, EDITOR.

HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY.,

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1875.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Wednesday, March 10. The Texas Senate has passed a bill repealing all laws requiring hotels to pro-

It is rumored that Plymouth church has subscribed $125,000 to defray the expenses of Beecher's defense, and that Bowen protested against the appropria-

Owing to the passage of the civil-rights bill, the proprietors of the two principal tncky, has won the admiration of every the ky, has won the admiration of every lady and gentleman in the South for his the rope until rescened. Young McMuray reached the bank in safety.

On Wednesday morning last Lewis fourteen babies in Forsyth county, N. C., have been named for line. have been named for him.

Last week we noticed the presence of myrfearfully cold weather did not affect them in ten degrees below zero they were hopping about as lively as ever. On Monday last the fields were still full of them.

A man by the name of Hugo Byer, a manner: He took on February 19, 2 onnces of landanum; February 20, 2 onnces of landannm and 3 ounces chloroform; February 21, 2 ounces chloroform and t onnce morphine, February 25, 4 onnées chloroform; February 23, 2 ounces will an prise the oldest medical men.of John Jordan, an industrious, hard-working, well-behaved colored man, died Working, well-behaved colored man, died merville, Tenn., Monday night. From what we can learn he was the victim of a supposed conjuration. Fully believing he had been conjured, and with a view of relieving himself there-from, he had swallowed dose atter dose of tem was completely exhanated, and paid the penalty of his superstitious be-

Early yesterday morning, as a woman went into the ealoon of Julius Wilcke, in Chicago, Illa, to get some beer, she diecovered the dead body of the proprietor. There was a deep gash in his skull above the right eye from which the brains on the floor, and the pockets of the vic-tim were turned out and rifled. No trace of the murderer has been discovered, but his object was doubtless money, since it was known that Wilcke expected to re-

Mr. Geo. Bright, an old resident of his children on the day previous, and, on picton resting upon the proper measures were taken tor his detection, and resulted in his arrest as above stated. The boy complained of feeling unstated. The accused was taken to Lynchmossier interposed. The quarrel between the husband and wife was bitter, and Mrs. B. testifies that he was about to strike her, when James Bright, a boy of about twenty, jerked down a gnn that was hanging on the wall, and shot him dead. The youn man then made his escape. The neighbors state that there had been considerable trouble between Mr. and Mrs. B for some time previous, and a difficulty between the young man and his father only a few days before. The evidence adduced at the coroner's inquest leaves no doubt on the mind of the jury but that the murder was premeditated. Every possible effort has been made to secure the murderer, but as yet without success.

On Friday last a terrible tragedy was enacted in DeSoto parish, La., a few miles south of Spring Ridge. It seems that an old man named Samuel Sanford, 77 years old, his son John Sanford, aged 30 years, and a son-in-law of the old man, named Ben Pittman, while on their way from Shelby county, Texas, to Shreveport, stopped on the side of the road to eat dinner. As the old man was sitting against a tree, his son stepped up to him, drew his six-shooter and remarking: have got you where I have wanted you for four years," fired two chots into his father's side or breast. The latter sprang up, mounted his horse and galloped off when the son pursued him, and, overtaking him, presented his pistol at his head. The old man begged him not to shoot again, saying "you have killed me, and I wish to say something before I die," or something to that effect. The son then rode off and made his escape into Texas. A party from Spring Ridge, shortly after the horrible tragedy, went in pursuit of the murderer, but failed to overtake him At last accounts Mr. Sanford was alive, but not expected to recover. From what we could learn, the act was prompted by a desire on the part of the eon to get the just over the Madison line, in Haywood county, a negro woman left home for few minutes, leaving two emall children in charge of a negro girl about twelve years old. When she returned half an hour later, she found her children, whom she had left hale and hearty, both lying together dead. They looked perfectly natural, with no sign of violence on them. The alarm was given to the neighbors by ed on the girl. She was charged with and Van Diemans's Land, several weeks possoning them, and at first she denied it, but, when threatened, she went to a lest Sunday. Only swenty-two of the passion in the hreat with twelve buckshot the half-distracted mother, suspicion rest log close by and took from under it a bots e of strechpine. She had been hired as a turse by the lather of the children, and was opposed to living with the family. It is supposed she poisoned the children to get rid of nursing and earing for them. She says a negro man gave her the poison, and told her to put it in the barrsl of meal, and she would then get to go back home. Several negroes have been arrested, but it is not positively known whether they have the guilty one or not. Whoever furnished the poison evidently expected to kill the whole family.

Thursday, March 11.

H. Lafree was found dead in bed at a hotet in Omsha Monday evening. He came there lately from Chicago.

At Indianapolia last night a brute, named Lewis Bishop, cut his wife's throat because she refused to live with him any

THE HERALD. Count, yesterday cut the throats of her Sullivan, and very seriously injuring Muntoring her health, having dyspepsia and two children, aged six and three years, hall, whose recovery is pronounced impredisposition to consumption. No soonand then cut her own throat. Mr. Whitelaw Reid, of the New York Tribune, sent to-day $2,000 more to Kan-sas and Nebraska for sufferers in the re-last night, which will doubtless result in means to make hervisit pleasant and agreegion devastated by the gaasshoppers. the death of a hoy of 17 named Billy Fish. This makes a total of $12,000 sent from It seems that he was accosted by the Tribune dollar fund for the needy of Tierney, a girl sixteen years old, with those states.

circumstances which I need not recount, he following rates:

Beer, by the glass$10 00 Whisky toddy...... 15 00 Brandy straight...... 12 00 and so on in proportion. To regular customers I will make a liberal discount

C. J. WEINNEISTER. Benjamin F. Woodside, a merchant at Chilhowee, Madison county, Tenn., was the drowning of five negroes in Stone rivdrowned in Ahram's creek about noon, er: A very sad accident happened on Tueslast Wednesday. Mr. Woodside and a day, the 2d inst. I had gone to Nashville

Saline county, Ark., met a horrible death Here Mr. Sullivan had more plows put iads of grasshoppers in the fields around Stannton, Va. Strange to say that the fearfully cold weather did not affect them in the fields around stanted the driver off to town with the load. In the meantime fearfully cold weather did not affect them in the fields around stanted the driver off to town with the load. In the meantime and, in taking it up, one of the barrels a colored man named Jesse Rucker, a womajority, and claim a majority the least, and while the thermometer was was discharged, the entire contents en man named Catherine Crawlord, a boy fifteen feet around. A negro by the name of Dunn, alias painter by trade, committed suicide at Nacogdochee, Texas, in the following the name) in Pleasonton, Texas, a short went to town afoot, in advance of the watime since, stole two horses in Wilson county, on the Boregos creek, from Mr. Conghran and Mr. Tackett. They followed him to the Guadalupe river, at or near Segnin, where they retook the stolen driver going back hy the bridge as he had horses. It is reported that when Dunn saw chloroform and I onnce chloral, and died on the 25th instant at 11 P. M. This cade in the bushes and drew his pistol. The pursuers took their horses and came away, leaving him. But whether or not the negro will break more jails and steal more horses, remains to be seen. The vicinity of Woodville, Texas was thrown into consternation and excitement last Monday evening by the shooting of a gentleman of the name of Pierce by another of the name Tomlinson, resulting in the death of the gentleman shot. It apthe most powerful emetics, until his sys- pears that the cause that led to this tragic event was a dispute about the division of some corn, during which accusations were made by formlineon, that the some of Pierce bad etolen some of his corn. The lie and licks were passed and Mr. T retreated to his wagon, and he claime that sa Mr. P. was advancing on him with a stick he shot him in self defense. It is alleged by others that Mr. P. did not have a stick as was alleged by Tomlinson. Mr. were oozing, and another cut from the mouth to the chin. 'A hatchet was lying T. now lodges in jail, failing to give bond for a $1,000 hail.

Martin Castevans, postmaster at Independence, Grayson county, Va., was arrested on the 2nd inst., by Special Postoffice Agent Eugene Lemis, charged with rob-bing the United States mails. For some six or eight months past registered latters, Fannin county, Texas, was killed at his home, near Honey Grove, on the 24th, under the following circumstances: It seems that Mr. B. had punished one of charged, have not heen received; and sus-well, and, on his refusal to get up, his hurg yesterday morning and taken before father attempted to whip him, but his United States Commissioner Patterson, who sent him on for indictment by the grand jury of Judge River's court, which meets on the 16th inst. The prisoner was committed to jail in default of $5,000 hail to await the action of the grand ju-

> The Alexandria, (Va.) Gazette has a report from Faquier county, Va., that Saturday last a colored man named Haines, went to the honse of his mistress, between Markham and Piedmont, and siezing a hatchet made a murderous assault upon the children, cutting and slashing terribly. The woman resisted and fought him from the house to the straw-rick near by, where it was ended by her splitting his head open with an ax and etretching him dead at her feet. The woman was hurt seriously, and the children so hadly that they will probably dis. A shocking accident occurred at Mt Pleasonton mine, Scranton, Pa., yester-day, by which two boys, named Henry Welch and John Owens, were crushed to death in a coal screen. Both lads were employed in the screen room separating elate from coal. Welch was in the act of stepping across the screen, when his foot was caught in the ponderous machine, which was evolving slowly. His cries brought to his aid his companion, Owens, extricate him. In the effort his arm was caught in the screen; and before the machinery could be brought to a stand-still, boys were crushed into a shapeless both mass. Their heads and arms were cevered from their bodies, and altogether they presented a shocking spectacle.

Friday, March 12.

.There are eaid to be more buffaloes on the Texas prairies now than for a number of years. Texas, has only just returned from the property of the father.

Last Monday, near Huntsville, Tenn.

A 110 years old mulatto, named Squire Haines, lives in Bell county, Texas. He births. is a native of Tennessee Dispatches from St. Johns, N. F., say the bodies of over forty persons, who died the San Antonia road, hy a man named there this winter, have been temporarily interred in the snow, which lies in such immense quantities in the cemeteries as turning on Saturday to the house to go to prevent the opening of graves.

Many women and children were drowned by the wreck of the steamship Gottensengers and crew were saved.

A negro girl of Oglethorpe county, Ga. had a child when she was twelve years mill, six miles north of Rushville, Ind. old. At the age of twelve that child was a mother, making the woman a grandurother when she was only twenty four years neer, and Oscar Hinchman, a hoy twelve old. This is said to be the youngest grandmother on record. For the truth of the Hinchman, Jerry Widener, and George above, the name of Rev. J. G. Gibson is Kimball. The boiler was blown into a given by the Oglethorpe Echo. trouble. He left a wife and aeveral child-when near the railroad crossing at Mill's son.

Station, Pa., on the Pittsburgh. Washing- Miss Allie Lou, daughter of Mr. S. A. ton and Baltimore railroad, their horses Atkinson, of New York city, had been on became lrightened at a passing engine, and a visit to her relative, Mr. A. Atkinson Monday, brought up for trial Tuesday, and discovery of the error produced his only can we continue to conquer. the wagon was precipitated over an em- of Madison, Ga., for the last four months. plead guilty, sentenced to one year's impossible. A stabbing affray occurred at No. 412 shall be forced to adopt in the future knife penetrating to the lungs and severing an air passage. She was intoxicated at the time, and in conversation with a reporter a short time afterward, affirmed her intention of killing Fish, with horrihle hlasphemiee. She professed to have been seduced and deserted by her victim. A correspondent sends the Murfreeshoro (Tenn.) News the following account of young son of Mr. Boyd McMurray were on the 8 o'clock train, and left Mr. John tering the face of the deceased, blowing named James Rucker, two young girls, his head entirely off, scattering the hrains Phillis and Sarah Rucker, sisters of the buy and the children of James and Susan Rncker, colored, who lived on my place, In the evening the wagon returned and the parties who went on foot in the morning came out in it in the evening, about an hour to sunset. Instead of the been directed, he undertook to ford the river, when the whole party, except one girl, Phillis Rucker, were drowned.

Saturday, March 13. Cameron county, Texas, is crunching new potatoes. San Antonia, Texas, was freezing its own ice last week.

The Dallas (Texas) Commercial says that the gentleman who eloped from that place a short time ago with another married lady, has returned to the arms of his irst love.

The discovery of gold and silver around the sleepy old town of Newburyport, Mass., has increased the value of land from $8 per acre to $2,000 per acre. A colored man in Shreveport, La., fired at the thiel who was stealing his corn, and, when he went to see the effect of his shot, he found his respected father-in-law curled up near the corn-crib. Last night at Sauk Center, Minn., stable, belonging to the Sauk Center House, was hurned, together with thir-teen horses, eleven of which belonged to farmers and teamsters. Pinchback speaks very freely of what he will do in case of his being rejected again. He proposes to appeal to his own troit, Mich. and betrayed in the house of their pre-A special dispatch from Sioux City, Iowa, to the Chicago Times says many strangers have arrived to join Gordon's Black Hills expedition, which is to start April 5. The indications are that there will be over a thousand men ready by that time.

A difficulty occurred at Marshall, last Saturday between Thos. Doak and J. T. Waddill, in which Doak fired several shots at Waddill, missing him, but mortally wounding John Morrison and a morri Doak was arrested.

her uncle and aunt in Union, Tenn,, coming herself. Temporary insanity is thought to be the cause. She was a daughter of Wm. Combs. who, some years eince, was run over by the freight train near Vauce,s tank and killed. The manner in which he was killed gave his daughter great trouble of mind. Some think she has never been rightly at her-

It is stated Mr. Coburn, of Indiana, famous for his recent exploits in the outrage business, was a disappointed applicant for a foreign mission, but was beaten by the army influence, and is now so much worked up by bis failure that there is langer of his becoming disloyal and joining the Democracy.

A special dispatch says a desperado named Hall took a negro into a saloon at Waverly, Mo., kept by a man named Bool, and attempted to place him on an brought to his aid his companion, Owens, a boy some fifteen years of age, who hravely and in face of a fearful fate sought to Hall insisted. The bar-keeper then chased the negro out of the saloon with a revolver. Another negro named Bell then interferred, and the bar-keeper shot him dead.

A lady living about six miles east of ing respectively seven, six and four pounds, seventeen in all, all of whom up to this writing are doing well. She is member of a respectable family, and is lest her first one during the war. She is the mother of two children by her first husband, and four by her second husband -the lour having been born at two

One Logan, alias Hickey, was killed at Williams. Hogan had abused Williams and his wife on several occasions, and rethrough the same programme, Williams warned Hogan if he did not desist and leave the premises, he would kill him in burg in Bass straits, between Australia five minutes. Hogan spent the five min-killing him instantly,

A boiler in Nelson & Shortridge's saw exploded yesterday morning with terrific violence, killing Alfred Joyce, the engiyears old, and injuring severely James number of pieces, and in all directions. A well-known saloon keeper of Clarks- One piece struck a log house, two hunville, Tenn., named John Mauning, com- dred yards distant, nearly demolishing it. rights bill, and now "private boarding" mitted snicide on Saturday night last hy The mill was not running at the time. taking areenic The cause was financial Nelson was filing a saw, when the engineer, a boy about eighteen years old, told Last night, between 9 and 10 o'clock, too high. The explosion followed almost predisposition to consumption. No soon- forty hours. er had she arrived there than she hecame very despondent, expressing a desire to berland county are both surprised and return home. Her relatives using every mortified that Mr. H. M. Alexander, their able, the despondency of Miss Lou gradually gave way to more buoyant hopes. But on Thursday morning, the 4th inet., whom he had been intimate. She asked she awoke at an early hour, seeining very Notice in an Atlanta saloon: Owing to him to accompany her home, and on his much depressed. She arose, and without refusing stabbed him above the heart, the dressing, went into an adjoining room occupied by a young lady cousin, and laying down heside her, asked the question, "If you were going to commit sulcide, how would you accomplish the deed, hy cutting your throat or shooting yourself? Her cousin's reply was that she would prefer the latter. The conversation turned upon other matters, and nothing more was said upon the subject. Miss Lou getting up and going into another room, in a lew seconds the report of a pistol was distinctly heard proceeding from the room which she had sought the mocrossing the creek a short distance above Sullivan in charge of my husiness, with ment before. At thie the family hastened where it empties into Little Tennessee orders to have a load of ploughs taken to where it empties into lattice remarks as food of ploughs taked to the room, and to their norror folius their licenses, and will conduct their establishments as private boarding-houses.

A Mrs. Evans, residing in Seymour, bankment, crushing to death the sick man, Her visit South was for the purpose of re- prisonment, and Wednesday morning was death.

The Hon. John Young Brown, of Kentroky, has won the admiration of every ficient to fell her. Necessary assistance them, eaying she desired to die.

Monday, March 15.

The New Hampshire election was no eleven in the lower branch of the Legislature. The Democrats elected a majority of the members of the Council (Senate), and two ol the three Congresswoman Tierney, at Chicago last Thursday night, and who has been lying in a critical condition ever since, will proba-

A lady of Monroe county, Tenn., pre-sented her husband with three habies all alive and well. Talk about immigration! week wiped out Dogwood valley, below ing men, women and children

Rome, Ga, was almost entirely under water last week. The citizene were compelled to use hoats in going from place to place. Depositors in the Rome bank paddled up to the door and handed their money through to the teller.

Saturday afternoon Catherine Barrett, aged about 35, while gathering coal along the track of the Cleveland and Pittshurg out going into particulars, it may be stat-railroad near Wood's run, Pittshurgh, ed they all point to domestic troubles as was run over by a switching engine and nstantly killed.

The Vickshurg Herald learns reliably that there is considerable excitement in Greenville, Miss, in regard to the accounts of the sheriff of Washington county. The Tax-payers' Leagne has heen investigating the sheriff's office, and there is a good deal of of talk of defalcation for the neat little sum of one hundred and fitty thousand dollars.

Tuesday, March 16.

Judgs John W. Longyear, of the United States District Court, died at Detroit, Mich., suddenly about 12 o'clock

A house went down Hiwassee river near where it empties into the Tennessee, when the tide was at its highest, with a man on the top of it who said he could not ewim. Unsuccessful attempts were made to rescue him when last heard from and the fate of the unfortunate man is unknown. A customer entering the store of A. G. Eberhart, at Conneautville, Pa., vesterday found Eberhart lying dead on the young boy, whose name is not given. a man named Jones on Thursday, and Doak was arrested.

Miss Sallie Combs, who was living with The murderer escaped. Mra Sarah E. Eastin committed suicide mitted suicide Saturday morning by hanging herself. Temporary insanity is shooting herself through the breast with a revolver. It is probable that domestic trouble was the cause. John Lyden, a wealthy and well-known stock dealer of Ellsworth, Ks., who has been missing some time, was found in a well yesterday at Saline, in that State, with a long gash in his left side and several cuts in other parts of his body. Detectives are working up the case. Nearly every newspaper in the land has printed a paragraph to the effect that en. Longstreet has taken up his residence in Georgia, and is there engaged in sheep raising. The statement is unfounded.

raising. The statement is unfounded.

E. C. Chilson, a Methodist preacher from Waterville, Ks., arrived at Helena Montana, Friday night, and took a room at the International Hotel. While the guests were at dinner Saturday, fire was discovered in his room. Several men in attempting to enter the room were knocked down and seriously injured by Chilson who was discovered to be insane. He had set the hedding on fire. The fire was ex-tinguished with but slight loss. Chilson was overnowered and conveyed to the as vluin. George Wheeler (negro) was hanged at Sweetwater, Tenn., some two weeks since gave birth to three healthy girls, weighing respectively seven, six and four last. On the scaffold he said: "My friends, I am going home to my Father. I am prepared to die. Whisky caused my trouale. Take warning by my example." He now living with a second husband, having died without a struggle, the fall having broken his neck.

Joshua Griffin (colored) was hanged near Belair, Md., Friday, for the murder of Miss Susan Taylor, near Aberdeen, Harford county, Md., on the 12th of October 1874. Griffin was twenty-five years old the stage stand next to Tuling, Texas, on and had been raised by the murdered wo man. He was born in jail at Belair, his mother heing a prisoner. On the morning of the execution he made a full confession of the crime to the sheriff, saying that he killed Miss Taylor on account of a grudge he had against Henry Taylor, the mur dered woman's brother, who had whipped him previously, Miss Taylor having heen the cause of the whipping.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

Hancock county farmers are troubled with fears that they won't have house room for their next year's crop of tobac-

Danville hotel keepers are happy. They have not taken out license, and thus will It is hard to lose friend after friend, be free from the annoyances of civil rights to see them slipping from you one by All the Bardstown hotels have given up their license since the passage of the civil

Mr. J. B. Lyle, of Fayette county, re cently found in his lold a lamb with two him to hurry, as the steam was getting perfectly formed heads. It lived a day or two and then died. as John Munhall and Con. Sullivan were immediately, blowing the engineer about returning from a visit to a physician and sixty feet, but only slightly injuring Nel- had a fine Coiswold ewe to have four lambs a few nights since, and they are all

It seems that the good citizens of Cum

Sheriff, shot twice at Mr. Tolander Riddle last Thursday, while trying to arrest him and missed him both shots. They speak of it as a horrible missing affair. One night last week J. F Yates, living near Grand Avenne Cave, Barren county, left his wife and five or six children, the youngest only a few days old, and eloped with a woman (having one child) whose home with respectable people.

Miss Ann Ferrand, of Boyle county, died last Monday night, of the singular and rare disease known as gangrene. -Only a day or two before her death she cut her hand with a case-knife, which at the time was regarded as an ordinary affair, but was soon followed by an intense pain and other extraordinary sympto and finally colminated in her death.

The house of John W. Price, some two miles from Hawesville, was consumed by fire on last Saturday, when nobody was at home. There was nothing saved exept the clothing the family had on. Mr. Price was in the coal bank at work, and was instantly tendered by her relatives had on his summer clothes. A lot of and stimulants offered her, but she refused groceries just laid in, and all of the pro- to differ with a portion of our political becoming the prey of such men! Let risions, including meat for the year, were destroyed. He is a poor man, and it is therefore a serious loss to him.

There recently resided in Marion connty a family named Frost, which consisted of five sone and the parents. Actuated by a desire, probably, to propritiate the win-ter king, the father named hie boys as follows: Severe Frost, Winter Frost, Jack Frost, White Frost, and Black Frost. Under the genial warmth of Kentncky's snmmer suns the family has become dissipated Bill Fish, who was stabbed by the young and is now scattered ahroad in different climes. Mr. White Frost visited Lebanon a few days since, and although every one was sighing for warm weather, he was heartily welcomed by his many friends. This is no joke, though it reads like one. Frankfort was startled one morning last week by the report that Mr. James Hu-Rumor has it that the hurricane of last lett, a well known merchant ol Benson Depot, had attempted suicide by taking a Dalton, Ga., killing forty persons, and dose of strychnine Subsequently the re-driving into Dalton seven hundred starvand it was ascertained that early Monday morning he had taken a dose of arseni instead of strychnine. Several of his neigh bors rushed to the rescue, and one of them gave him a strong "netic, which relieved him long befors the physician summoned from Frankfort could reach him. There are many reports in circulation as to the cause of this attempted suicide; but, with-> at the bottom of it. A Howe's Valley correspondent of the Elizabethtown News reports a fourteenyear-old negro boy who has nix toes on each foot, and five fingers and a thumb on the right hand. The same correspondent vouclies for the following: 'Squire Jamee Allison, while digging on his farm, unearthed an ordinary grub-worm, that hy some process or freak of nature had been transformed into a hard woody substance, still preserving its form, head, body, eyes, teeth, &c. A sprout is growing ont of one side of the head near one nch and a half long, not unlike the gerin ofanacorn. A second one is growing. also, on the other side, near a quarter of an inch in length. The 'Squire has planted it in a box filled with sarth so as to observe the nature and growth of this

Mr. John Bailey and some other gentlemen brought to Glasgow on Monday, a fearfuly incane s'ranger who made his ap pearance in the Nicholas ueighhorhood er, on S and alarmed some lailies, where he happened in his crazy wanderings. The ladies sent lor Mr. Bailey, who went over and arrested the lunatic, and kept him in confinement until Monday, when he was brought to town, and after proper investigation, he was placed in jail lurther disposition could be made of him He represents himself ae being from East Tennessce, and says his name i Simmons. He has a very ardent desire to marry, but this must not be construed as evidence of his insanity.

An old negro woman by the name of Brown, living about nine miles couth o Covington, on the farm of Mr. Pullen had a daughter about twelve or thirteer years, of age, who had for a long time been bed-ridden with a hopeless attack of paralysis. Her mother an incarnate fiend, growing weary of the constant care and trouble which the afflicted daughter required at her hands, determined to put her out of the way, and selected the mos cruel and tortnring method that debased ingennity could suggest-burning-expec ing to conceal her crime under the guise lan accident. Having perfected her abolical plans, about two weeks ago she set about putting them into execution. Placing the child on a chair by the fire place, and tying a rope around her neck he began saturating her head and clothing from a bottle of thrpentine she had procured for the purpose. The child struggled with what power of motion it could command, knocked the bottle from the hand of its mother and broke it, saturating the mother's clothing with the inflammable fluid. In the struggle, the nother's clothing took fire from the fireplace, and she abandoned her terrible threw herself into a hranch near hy, and extinguished the flames, but not until she child also took fire, and it was very eeverely hurned. At the time, it was supposed to he an accident, but the monster woman subsequently, when in the agouses of death from her hurning, revealed the facts as above detailed.

ADAM was the only man that ever lived who could truthfully boast that he never stole fruit in his boyhood.

A MAN in Indiana whittled up and ate a piece of pine plank the other day to win a wager. He atterward experienced a panic in his lumber regions.

with your eyes full of soap.

placed in the penitentiary-all inside of TO THE DEMOCRACY OF KEN- presented with the hitherto unheard-of TUCKY:

based upon recent deplorable and dis- communities and in the party, being graceful occurrences, for your careful denied the right of expressing their senand patriotic consideration. In writing timents in public meetings of a free as we do, we are actuated by the purest people! Great Goo! and has it come of motives, and moved by our exceed- to this, that Freedom of Speech is stricking devotion to the principles of, and en down, stabbed, murdered, in Demjealous consideration for the fair fame ocratic conventions in the Democratic reputation was not sufficient to secure her of, our party. For the past twenty State of Kentucky? One of the prinyears we have advocated with pen and cipal grievances that led our fathers to voice the adoption of those principles throw off the yoke of British rule, hy the American people. We have was their deprivation of the freein that time seen Kentucky, our belov- dom of speech by the parliament of ed native State, redeemed from captiv-, England. And shall we, their descendity, and its statue set in the Valhalla ants, submit to be robbed, through the of Democracy. We have sufficient van- arts and trickery of ambitious demaity to believe that we contributed, in gogues, of this degrest and most valued some small degree, to that desirable re- right of American Democrats? Forbid sult. It is true enough, that once or it Heaven! Democrats! Kentuckians! twice, when extraneous issues were in- assert your manhood! Protect and prejected into the party, we were compelled serve your party and your State from brethren; but these differences passed us lay the necks of the mischief-makers nisms of principle), and left us all in banish from the party the designing and full accord as before their intrusion.

merits—we of to-day have nothing to of propriety and decency, and who do. That is all dead and buried, and pushes his schemes of selfish amhition ought to be forgotten, matter. The into the very heart of the party as BRUion we must abide. No good can be CASAR, than, like craven cowards, give accomplished by raking through the way before him, and permit him to disashes of the late fratricidal strife, and rupt and destroy the party! What othdragging into view the charred skeleton er treatment does the man deserve, who, of a quarrel that is dead. We fully while a candidate for the most exalted and freely accord to those who occupied position in our gift, stoops to organize mourn those who offered up their lives instruct for him? on either side as our common dead, as Oh, for a tongue to curse the slave, brothers who laid the extreme offering of devotion to what they deemed the sacred cause of liberty on the altar of their country. Their going forth to battle and sudden death we accept as With hopes, that but allure to fly, the strongest evidence of their faith in the justice of their respective causes .-Standing by their graves, we ask not demand to know which flag they hallowed by their blood. We only know that they sleep in a common earth, that an impartial sky bends over them all, and that the green grass and the beautiful flowers avoid not the graves of the And, when from earth hie spirit flies, one, nor concentrate their wealth of loveliness and adornment upon those of the other. We only know, and only care to know, that, enemies no longer, they

Under the violets the blue, Under the lillies the gray: Under the lillies the blue, . Under the violets the gray.

Discarding, then, the late war as a we stood arrayed against each other in hostile lines of battle-it becomes us to employ all of our judgment, to summon all of our wisdom, to survey the critical situation with the coolest and keenest scrutiny we can command; and then, thrusting to one side all merely partisan and personal considerations, act as one man, fully realizing the gravity of the occasion and the extraordinary responsibility that rests upon each one individually, and so act that our State and and preserved by our action. We cannot afford to create and fuster which demands that we should sacrifice his family, his neighbors, and from the harmony, perhaps the very exist religious principle. ence of the party, to advance his per- Such is his character given to us by sonal interests. When any candidate, those in whose words we have the utwe care not who he is, stoops to the most confidence. He does not make lowest and vilest arts of the demagogue the barrooms of the towns he visits his crime to save her own life. She ran and to accomplish his own selfish ends, pro- headquarters. He dees not bribe voters ducing ruptures at county conventions with drams nor indulge in dram drinkwas satally burned. The clothing of the and creating estrangements between ing himself. He is not profane or ob-Democrats, spreading schism and heart scene in conversation. He is a marvel, burnings wherever he goes, he should in all these respects, among candidates. be looked npon as the public enemy of He is eminently qualified, in every parthe party and treated accordingly. The ticular, for a much higher position than Democratic party of Kentucky to-day the one to which he aspires. We are THE girl who can enjoy the bouquet of presents the anomalous spectacle of a for him. whisky, onions and pipe on the breath besieged Troy, against which demaof her lover, has a stomach for any fate. goguery is waging a fierce and unrelenting Punic war. The Greek horse of to the whole human race as you stand selfishness has been introduced into our You would not exchange places with citadel—the county convention—baying coucealed in its hollow stomach a few whiskings of the broomstick, an armed and bitter dissensions. The fruits untimely stoppage or two with your of this introduction of disguised and con-head of wafted flat-irons, and your weacations, are already sadly and disgracefully apparent in the results of the bring your afflicted relict out to the county conventions held in Owen, Bourbon, Hart and Daviess. The evil is nings, and soothe her grief with whisone; but it is harder still to find a towel now in its bud, and can be easily met perings of love, as together they strew and eradicated. If left to grow and gather volume and strength, it can have "Oh, why should the spirit of mortal THE Cincinnati papers chronicle the but one and that'a disastrous terminadeath of a man who lived eighty years tion. The harmony, the mobility of in their city, but studiously conceal the the party once destroyed, its usefulness spectacle of life-long Democrats, men We desire to present a few thoughts, of the first standing and position in their away with the occasions that produced under the blade of the guillotine of our them, (and they were never antago- scorn and reprobation! Better forever intriguing man who sets at defiance all With the late war-its causes or its our cherished traditions, all the rules sword was appealed to, and by its decis- rus pushed his dagger to the heart of opposing sides credit for honesty insen- and lead a bolting faction because a timent and patriotism in action. We regular county convention declines to

In the counties named above we were learned how to boil tongue.

> Whose treason, like a deadly blight, Comes o'er the conneils of the brave,

And blaste them in their hour of might! May life's unblessed cup for him Be drugged with treach'ries to the brim, -With joys, that vanish while he sipe, Like Dead Sea fruits, that tempt the eye,

But turn to ashes on the lips! the color of the uniforms they wore, nor His country's curse, his children's shame Outcast of virtue, peace, and fame, May he, at last, with lips of flame On the parched desert thirsting die,-While lakes, that shone in mock'ry nigh, Are fading off, untouched, untasted, Like the once glorious hopes he hlasted!

Just Prophet, let the damned-one dwell Fall in the sight of Paradise, Beholding heaven, and feeling hell!

HON. JOHN C. UNDERWOOD. This gentleman, a resident of Bowling-Green, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Lt.-Governor. While we cannot boast the good fortune of being personally acquainted with him, yet we are acquaintegitimate subject of discussion, and ed with others of his family who have looking only to the perils that environ in other and purer days been frequentand threaten our liberties-perils great- ly called from the retirement of private er and more imminent even than when life by the people of Kentucky to fill high and responsible positions. We are gratified to be assured that the same qualities of mind and heart that make Hons. JOSEPH R. and WARNER L. UN-DERWOOD conspicuous models of the old-school Kentucky gentlemen, are eminently characteristic of the subject of this brief article. Joh & C. UNDERWOOD possesses many qualities that entitle his claims to the favorable consideration of the people. I. He is a man of brain and veour whole country shall be benefitted racity. II. He is modest and napretentious. III. He is both a professed and practical Christian. IV. He is dissensions in our ranks. There lives wholly devoid of bad or exceptionable no man, we care not whom he may be, habits. V. He is a total abstinence that has that claim upon us as a party man from conviction of duty to himself, Young man, you feel a superiority the President. Yet a few short years, willows, while some young gallant will cemetery on calm summer Sabbath evecandy-kiss wrappers o'er your grave.

Two Calhoon girls wanted to lick a fact that the poor old man labored all will have passed away. In our union little snow from an iron picket. After those years under the delusion that he of sentiment and endeavor alone con- the third kettle of scalding water was in the land of the living.

A negro thief was arrested in Frankfort lived just across the river in Kentucky, sists our strength. By united action emptied, they retired into the house not at all stuck-up because they had

GENERAL WILLIAMS AND OUR-

The last issue of the Owensboro Shield contains an article personal to the editor of this paper which demands something more than a passing notice at our hand. We have no personal acquaintance with the editor of the Shield; but, until the last issue of his paper, presumed him to be a gentleman. The presumption was erroneous. We shall engage in no controversy with him. .. We cannot afford to stoop to his level. As he is the intrument used by General WILLIAMS to put in print a falsehood that person has been retailing by word of mouth all over the State, right here is about as good a time and place as may present parts. itself to hurl it back into his teeth.

In regard to WILLIAMS' assaults upon the press at Burlington. Flemingsburg, Maysville, Glasgow and Owenton, we have the words of the reporters of the Cincinnati Enquirer, Commercial, and Gazette, and the editors of the Covington Journal and Covington Advertiser, Flemingsburg Democrat, Maysville Eas gle, Bulletin, and Republican, Glasgow Times, Owenton News, &c. Allof these editors are gentlemen of high social standing: gentlemen, all, of unimpeach- ly attended. able veracity. ...

"The editor of the HERALD don't like "General WILLIAMS, because, as a mema "ber of the Legislature, he voted to ex-"clude him from a seat as a reporter, "for some tirade of abuse he heaped "Good Templar's Advocate."

General WILLIAMS belongs to that prevarication has taken the form of a yourselves. disease, and become chronic, else he above. We were not a reporter in the Legislature. We have not been inside once, attending a convention—since the | we have tried one. winter of 1859-60. We had no business with the last Legislature, did not go near it, and consequently no member of that body had occasion to vote as General WILLIAMS says he voted, to our discomfiture. If any one feels suf- with nerve and courage enough to comcient interest in the matter to consult the records of the last House, they will dis- with new buildings. Dandy has an eye cover that it adopted a resolution cen- to business and is just the man to "go in suring us for denouncing, over our prop- lemons if he does get squeezed." He has er signature, one of its members as a liar, slanderer and scoundrel, who had asserted in a speech from his place on the floor, "that no respectable woman belonged to the Order of Good Templans in Kentucky." And the records further show that General WILLIAMS We have heretofore abstained from par- A great many hoats and rafts passed character, and we did not care to make a peg upon which he could hang even the shedow of a charge of private mel ice on our part against him. 'But since needed. .. he is going about circulating infamous falsehoods about us, of which the above all we know about General Joun S. WILLIAMS.

to the inquiry whether she thought she bridged dictionary to the heat speller, and could manage a pair of mules, with a by an admission charge of, say a dime, disdainful toes of the head she said, at the door, soon raise money enough to thing in the world is to thump a child matter? on the head. He is correct. . The holiest thing is to thump it on the other

A PADUCAH man has been snatched from a drunkard's grave twenty-two times. Since the municipal election the laden with hogs. The trucks were torn Indiana. other day, he has been going on as if he wanted to be snatched some more.

BEECHER preached last Sunday on "The Stiffness of Modern Morality."-His practice of that sort of morality is what visited him with the suit now progressing in the Brooklyn city court.

"Bow-wow-wow, Macouw-macouw-macouw," is the popular melody with the dogs and cats of serenading proclivities in the neighborhood of our lodgings. THERE lives in the vicinity of Elizabethtown a widower who declares that glory of God, the glory of the church, departed wife so much as to live within ear-shot of a saw-mill during a busy

A young lady of Litchfield took a trip to Louisville and back, and for six to the church, and be instrumental in the weeks refused to speak to any of her salvation of precions sonls. I will delivfemale chums because they hadn't trav- er the first lecture, Providence permitting his wife. She is eighteen, pretty, and All are invited to attend. pert. He is forty-four years and $25,-000,000 old.

THE HERALD.

IS PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING, IN THE TOWN OF HARTPORD, OHIO COUNTY, KENTUCKY,

-BY- 6 JOHN P. BARRETT & CO.,

Job work of every description done neatness and dispatch, at city prices. We have a full line of job types, and solicit the patronage of the husicess community.

AT THE PRICE OF

Two Dollars a Year in Advance.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1875. JNO. P. BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR.

Money is scarcer than religion in these

There will be more tobacco cultivated n Ohio county this season than ever was

We get up better and cheaper stock bills than any establishment in the Green River Nation.

Farmers, remember that it is not Williams Brothers' shop that put up the thin slah plow with maleable clevis.

The singing-class, at the Methodist church last Sabbath afternoon, was large-

Williams Brothers' have a fine lot of plows to sell for each, and will do all work in their line cheap. All work warranted.

W. H. Williams, the popular and energetic merchant, has erected a new shed over the front door of his store house, so upon a member of the Legislature from as to have his store cool and comfortable "Covington, in one of his letters to the for his customers during the coming hot weather. He is the livest man in Kentucky, and will buy anything you have to class of falsifiers in whom the habit of sell, at a fair price. Call and see for

Our young friends, Wells & Wil. would be more careful of the unities in liams, have a new sign over their door, inventing his fabrications. The Jour- which looks quite neat and tasty. They al of the last House of Representatives propose to enlarge it soon and they will will amply prove the falsity of the then have the most attractive sign in town. They are enterprising young men, and are succeeding well. By the way, they keep an assortment of the best pocket the State-house at Frankfort—except knives in the market. We know this, for

New Building.

L. J. Lyon has bought the corner lot oppposite the Hartford House, and is hus ily engaged in building him a store-house thereon. We are glad to see some one mence filling up the old hurnt district selected the best point in town for selling goods, and his already extensive trade will be considerably enlarged when he gets over to his new stand.

The Big Drift.

done drift in Rough Creek just above the lock and dam. It was four handred voted against that resolution of censure .- | yarde long and matted together very thick ticularizing the grounds of our opposi- down during the recent rise, and the hands tion to WILLIAMS, because in doing on them combined together to the numso we would have to show up his real her of one hundred men or over, and at

We notice that the old-fashioned "spellis the least harmful, we propose next ing matches" have been revived at the week to tell the people of Kentucky eastern end of the State, and the good people-old, middle-sged, young, of both sexes, and all professions and callingsare having "Jashins" of fun Why can't A Louisville woman applied for a we of Hartford join in the frolic? Let's situation as street-car driver. In reply get up a spelling match. We can offer a "Of course I can. I've had two hus- furnish our Sunday-schools with a nice iihrary apiece. What do you say, ladies and gentlemen, to a meeting at the court-Mr. BEECHER thinks the wickedest house Saturday night to consult over the

A Train Wrecked. Last Saturday night, at a point about one-and-a-half miles this side of Owens on the L. P. and S. W. road, caused by yards. Four box cars were totalty wrecked. Strange as it may read, yet it is a fact that, although these cars were loaded with cattle and hogs, and were torn all to pieces and "piled in a heap" only one hog was killed, and another had a leg broken. It was three o'clock Sunday afternoon before the track was cleared of the debris and repaired sufficiently to allow the safe passage of trains.

A Response.

BROTHERS BERRYMAN AND OTHERS: have read your call in the HERALD.] am ready to do all that I can for the nothing reminds him of his poor, dear, and the salvation of souls. It never has been my purpose to pull down any branch of God's church, but to raise the church to which I helong and invite others to come up higher. I am persuaded the "lectures" will bring glory to God, good the 3rd Sunday in this month, at 101 o'clock, a. m. We will take up the 5th THERE is quite a disparity in age be- article first. "The Holy Scripture," and tween Senator JONES, of Nevada, and continue through the week, at night only.

B. A. CUNDIFF. Hartford, Ky., March 6th 1875.

We are gratified to announce that Capt, O. P. Johnson is erecting a wool-carding factory on the creek above town, near the water-mill.

Mr. Henry Armendt, jr., has recently been appointed U.S. Ganger. We can cheerfully say that a more efficient and appropriate selection could not have been nade anywhere.

We have had all sorts of weather since Friday evening-rain predominating. A few more days like yesterday-clear, sunshiny and windy-and our farmers can start their teams afield with som hope of getting their corn in early.

Local news is scarcer than hen's teeth. There hasn't been a murder, a fight, a fire, an elopement, or anything whatever to create a ripple since our last issue. Our county is as quiet as a young woman waiting for her joe to pop the question.

Marriage Licenses. The following is a list of the marriage licenses issued for the two weeks ending March 13, 1875. James G. Fielding and Miss Hannah H Richard S. Baker and Miss Maggie E

Graves. Charles D. Ralph and Miss Millie E Hoover Jonathan E. Buiden and Miss Susan F Shelby S. Southard and Miss Eliza Wake

Charles Johnson and Miss Sallie A. Am brose. James A. Baird and Miss Mary A Tal field.

COLORED. Virgil Lindley and Sarah Brown.

Plows and Cultivators. In our perambulations around town the ther day, we happened to step into the work-shop of our old friends, J. P. Tracy & Son. Everything wore the appearance of business. We noticed several plows stocked, or in process of stocking. One, in particular, attracte our attention. It is a large rounder, and is stocked in better, stronger, and in more lasty style than any plow we ever saw. It would do our Granger brethren good to look at it, and t would be a pleasure to follow such a plow rigged off with a suitable team. We also noticed a new cultivator, which is said to he excellent for plowing in oats, and saves helf the time. By taking out the front teeth, it would be a splendid thing to cultivate coru. We would be glad to see our farmers try this new cultivator, for, after a careful examination, we feel assured it will do good work.

Annual Meeting of the O. C. A. & M. A.-Election of Officers. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Ohio County Agricultural and bfechanical Association was held at the court honse last Saturday. Thirty-seven shares of stock was represented in the meeting. The Treasurer's report showed the total indehtedness to he about $750, and the assetts on hand about $300, leaving the nel indebtedness, $450. The following officers were elected for the ensu-

President, Z. W. Griffin; Vice Presidents, A. B. Baird and J. Warren Barnett; Secretary, S. K. Cox; Treasurer Jas. A. Thomas. Directors.-William Graves, A C. Ellis, V. D. D. Stevens, W Rowe, John Midkiff, J. F. Carson and

The meeting was adjourned to meet at the shadow of a charge of private mal-June 12, 1875, at which time every stock holder is requested to present.

"Hard Times, Come Again no More." All persons desirous of securing useful oporable, and highly profitable employment, adapted to persons of any age, sex, or social position, entirely free from competition, and without limit, should read Fortune Won; a. Working Man's Narrative, the story of a poor mechanic who, while in had health, without means, and with a family on his hands, discovered a busidess in which he made a fortune in a few years, and tells so plainly how it was done, that any one who reads his narralive can be equally successful. Commenced in the number for January, 1875. (now ready) of the Popular Journal, a large forty column literary paper, filled with the choicest productions of American and foreign authors. Magnificent boro Junction, a freight train was wrecked list of costly premlums. Sent three months on trial for twenty-five cents.

The following is a list of the real estate transfers, lodged for record for the two weeks ending March 13, 1875: Mrs. Mary Morris to James L. Morris one-fourth of a tract of land on Caney creek. Consideration cash. $100.

eration cash, 1,000. M. Brown to Dr. W. J. Berry, 35 acres of prison walls. land on the Morgantown road. Consideration cash, 600.

M. Statler to Ignatius P. Statler, 273 acres of land in. District No. 9. Consideration, $1.090 50. Thos. J. Smith, S. O. C. to Ahram Kaha, 148} acres of land on Indian Camp. Consideration cash, $91 68.

F. M. Sinclair to Frank Allen and wife 51 acres of land in Caney Precinct. nsideration cash, $36 75. J. D. Gordon to G. W. Gordon, 30 acres of land near Rockport. Consideration cash. $200. Dr. John E. Pendleton and Mrs. Pendleton to L. J. Lyon, lot in Hartford, op-posite the Brick Hotel, 34 by 20 fect. Consideration, $200. Samuel R. Cope to Jacoh C. Stewart, 24 acres of land on Indian Camp. Consideration cash, $125. William Tanner to John H. Tanner, 64 acres of land on Rough creek. Consideration, $451 50. W. H. Rice to F. M. Sinclair, 75 acres of land. Consideration, $625. Frank Allen to F. M. Sinclair, 17 acres of land. Consideration, $174.

OUR ROCKPORT LETTER.

ROCKPOST KY., Mar. 16.

A GOOD JUDGE OF A NEWSPAPER. EDITOR HERALD: If you deem this letter worthy of a place in your paper, you may print it, for I want to see how a letter ot my writing will appear in print.

First, I want to say a word for the paper. It is the neatest and most readable country paper I ever saw. You must have really a competent corps both of editors and of printers, and I felicitate the citizens of Ohio county upon having such an exponent of its interests and advocate of its rights. No county in my knowledge sine every wesk .- Editor. has near such a paper. People of Ohio county, sustain your paper, it is eminently worthy of your confidence and patronage. Support it by your subscriptions; and if you have anything to sell, or if you want anything, advertise through its medium. Your county needs just such a means of communication with the outer world. Devoted to vonr interests, it is bold in its advocacy. Where is there a ounty richer in minerals and ores and timber, useful for all manufacturing purposes, than Ohio? Where is there a couny with more surplus land that is now only a source of tax, and daily depreciating for the want of proper attention? Advertise your minerals and, farms, and draw men of capital and farmers of experience and intelligence among you, and thus place Ohio county in her proper position before the world.

"P. R." AND MR. BOCK.

P. R., of this place, seems to he hard on W. H. Rock. I don't think he meant to be. He seems to me on the other hand to rather flatter himself that he was only widening the breach between Rock and the party for which he fought so long and from which he had received such unfair usage. Mr. Rock is a man of a good deal of intelligence, and is heartily welcome to throw his influence with us Democrats. Come over, brother, come over and help us to kill the too fatted calf.

ROCKPORT IS IMPROVING fast for such hard times. Several new huildings are already built and occupied, and there are others in the course of erection. Business is brisk here by what I have seen it in other places.

One night last week the store of Mr. John Dougherty was visited by some person name not known. The money drawer was rifled, and a couple of pairs of pantaloons failed to come to time next morning. . Respectfully, BUFORD.

SPRING LICK ITEMS.

Spring Lick, March 16, 1875. THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

The coming political contest is creating hut little enthusiaem in this county. In pursuance to the request of the executive committee of the State, a convention will be held in Leitchfield on the 4th Monday, proximo, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Democratic State convention at Frankfort on 6th of May, As there is so little said about the aspirants for the various offices, we will not attempt to foreshadow the result of our county convention, but so far as our knowledge extends we think the Hon, Jas. B. Me-Creary is certainly the first choice of this county for Governor, and J. C.U aderwood for Lieutenant-Governor. Occasionally we hear of a prospective candidate for legislative honors. Only two, we helieve, out of the number who are offering themselves as sacrifices on the political altar, have officially declared their intention to remain in the canvass Sugar, crashed pow'd, 7 to until the August election. We were in- Soap, ? ib. formed, a few days ago, that Dr. A. R. Byers had some aspirations in this direction. The Doctor is a very prominent Tar, ? gallon and popular gentleman in our county, and if he should become a candidate he will receive the hearty support of many voters at the August election. We regret that his political record don't accord with our own and the popular record of this county; but it is our opinion that the old issues will be ignored pretty generally the coming campaign, and new ones substituted therefor. So mote it be.

REV. L. B. DAVISON held quarterly meeting at our church on last Saturday and Sunday. We regret that his congregation was so small, but this is easily accounted for when we mantion the fact that this community is not much on the church-going principle. His the hursting of a wheel under a stock-car laden with hogs. The trucks-were torn out and dragged nearly three hundred Address Journal Company, Lawrenceburg, 2t.

Christ was an able effort, replete with arcare the lender by a mortgage on real estate; end as an additional security will give him to hold as collateral real estate lien notes worth undivided attention of his congregation. discourse Sunday on the Baptism of BAIL AT LAST.

Alex. Carvill, who was some days ago tried before Esquire Eskridge on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons, convicted, and failing to give bond was committed to jail, on last Saturday John R. Austin to Dr. W. J. Berry, 145 gave bond for his appearance at our ciracres of land on Muddy Creek. Considerate Court He was released from the cuit court. He was released from the

THE FARMERS GET A SET-BACK.

But for the rain Friday night and Saturday morning, the farmers hereabouts would make considerable progress this week in pitching their crops. A great many had commenced sowing oate, and plowing for corn, but the rain has caused a suspension in their progress. So they will have to wait now till the ground gels in order before they can resume their work.

LETTER FROM ROSINE.

ROSINE, KY, March 16. A GOOD START OFF.

EDITOR HERALD: I have observed letters from other parts of the county in your noble paper, and thinking it probable that some of your readers would like to hear from the little town of Rosine, 1 have concluded to "drop you a few lives" n default of a better ecribe.

DESCRIPTION OF THE TOWN Rosine is located ten miles east of Hartford on the L. P. & S. W. railroad, It contains 60 inhabitants, 3 dry goods stores, 1 drug store, and 1 blacksmith shop, all of which are doing a good trade, considering the hard times.

A NEW DOCTOR. Our highly esteemed friend, N. J. Raine who has been at Louisville attending the Medical School, has returned with M. D. atlached to his name. We wish him unbounded success in his profession.

Yours Respectfully, L. S. C. We will be pleased to hear from Ro

MARRIED.

MORSE-STUART-March 2, 1875, at the residence of D. H. Westbury, Rochesler, N. Y., by Rev. Jos. R. Page, Mr. C. E. Mozsa to Miss MARY E. STUAST. Here's lnck, old friend-only, for gracious ake, don't let them he red-headed.

GRUELLE—GRAY—Near Worthington, Minnesota, on Sundey, March 7, 1875, by Rev. J. W. Lewis, Mr. Thos. M. Grualla to Miss

Tommy is the youngest-the Benjamin of our tribe. We are glad that he has chosen the hetter part" in his young manhond. He is a good boy and she is a good girl, and may a good Providence watch over and gnard and guide them, and spare them to each other 'unto the allotted soore.'

Mr. Peter Polly was born in the fort near Danville, Ky., March 3. 1780, and died at the residence of his son-in-law, L. D. Cooper, in Ohio counity, Ky., February 25, 1875. aged nearly 95 years. Mr. Polly moved to Daviess county, Ky., in the year 1837, where he remained as a citisen until the year 1863, when nn account of his own advanced age, and the death of some of the members of his family, he desisted from honse-keeying. After this he spent about two years with Ellsabeth Clark, in Davisss county, thence he went to Webster econly, where he remained two years, thence to L. D. Cooper's, in Ohio county, where he remained notil death. In 1839 he made a profession of faith in Christ, and became a member of the Baptist Cburch, in which Church he remained as an acceptable member natil the close of his earthly career. R. D. BENNETT.

The wheat has not been injured by the late cold snaps, is our information from all parts of the county, and the crop bids fair to be large and bonntiful.

HARTFORO RETAIL I	MARKETS.
Corrected Weekly by Wm	. H. Willia	110 PL.
HARTFORD; Ky., Ms
Apples, dred, & hnsh		•
Apples, green. B push	75@ 1	25
Apples, green, p pnsh Bacon, b h	15
Beans & hush	1 25@ 1	50
Brooms, & doz	2 40@ 3
Butter, & fb	15@	20
Candies, & To	25@	40
Candles, ? fb	25
Coffee, 7 fb	25@	28
Cheese, & Ib		28
Crackers. & th	15@	25
Coal oil, & galnon Chickens, & doz	30@	36
Chickens, & doz	1 50@ 1	75
Corn, barrel	3 00 .
Eggs, & doz	10@	10
Furs, raccoon	40@	50
Furs, mink	1.00@ 1	75
Fiour, & barrel	6 00@ 7	00
llay, $ 100 fb	4@	41
Aides, green, salted, ? ib	75@	6
Hides, dried flint, & th	6(a) 10(a)	15
Lard, & b	20	10
Lard oil P gallon	1 25
Lime, & barrel	1 50
Meal, bolted, bushel	75@	80
Meal, unbolted, " bushel	75	-
Molasses, & gallon	75@ 1	00
Mackerel, kit	1 50(a) 2
Mackerel, B harrel	8 50@10	00
Nails, B keg, 10d	5 00	•
Nails, $\partial \text{keg}, 10d Oysters, $\partial \text{can}	1210	20
Onions, parrel	5 00
Potatoes, Irish, & husirel.	1 80@ 2	00
Peaches, dried, & bushel.	1 50@ 1
Rice, & fb.	124
Sait. Bbarrel	2 50
Lugar, N. O. & ib	, 10@	121
Sugar, C., & fb	1210	14

75@ 1 50 AUGUST ELECTON, 1875.

10

Stauch. 29 fb

Soda. # ib.....

Tobacco, manufac'd, & fb

Auditor Public Accounts. Fayette Hewltt, of Hardin county, is a can-didate for the office of Audilor of Public Accounts at the Angust election, 1875. Subject to the action of the Democratic Convention called for May 6, 1875.

Register of the Land Office. C. J. Hinkle, of Shelhy county is a candidate for Register of the Land Offic. Subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

NOTICE.

Wanted to borrow $3,000 for two or three years, for which ten per sent. Interest will be paid—payable semi-annaily—note to be due if luterest is not promplly paid, and will se-

ELECTION NOTICE:

LOCAL OPTION.

Notice is hereby given that at the May alection to be held on the 1st day of May, 1875, In District No. 7, Obic county, Ky., at the court house in Hartford, a poll will be opened for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters in said district upon the proposition whether or not spirituous or malt liquers shall be sold in said district.

THOS. J. SMITH,

Sheriff of Ohlo County. March 13, 1875.

FARM

SALE OR RENT

As agent of Bonner & Duff, I desire to sell or rent the old "Crow Farm," on Hall's creek, containing two hundred end ten acres. Terms liberal.

JOHN P. BARRETT.

WM. F. GREGORY.

(County Judge.)

ATTORNEY AT LAW

HARTFORD, KY.

Prompt attention given to the collection of claims. Office in the courthoose.

JESSE & FOGLE. Hartford, Ky. Owensbore, Ky

FOGLE & SWEENEY, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

HARTFORD, KY. Will praelice their profession in Obio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals.

Office on Market street, near courthouse. JOHN O'FLAHERTY.

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

HARTFORD, KY. Collections Promptly Attended to Office on Market street, over Mansy's tin

JOHN P. BARRETT,

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

and Real Estate Agent, HARTFORD, KENTUCKY.

Prompt attention given to the collection of claims. Will bny, sell, lease, or rent lands or mineral privileges on reasonable terms. Will write deeds, mortgages, leases, &c., and attend to listing and paying taxes on lands belonging to non-recidents.

MORGAN & WEDDING. ATTORNEYS AT LAW. HARTFORD, KY.

(Office west of courthouse nver Hardwick & Name of the state of the second superior courts will practice in inferior and superior courts f this commonwealth

Special attention given to cases in bankof this

P. P. Morgan is also examiner, and will ake depositions correctly—will be blige all parties at all times. HENRY D. MCHENRY.

. SAM. E. HILL. Menenry & HILL.

ATTORNEYS& COUNSELLORS ATLA W

HARTFORD, KY. Will practice in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

B. n. WALKER, R. C. HUBBARD.

WALKER & HUBBARD.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

AND REAL ESTATE AGENTS,

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY. aol la

JOHN C. TOWNSEND,

(Fermerly County Judge,) ATTORNEY AT LAW

HARTFORD, KY. Will practice in all the courts of Ohio county and the circult courts of the 5th judicial dis-trict. Business solicited and prompt attention

E. F. STROTHER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW. HARTFORD, KENTUCKY:

Will practice in all the courts of Ohie county nd the circult courts of adjulning cuunties.

OFFICE up stairs over J. W. Lewis' ald

B. P. BERRYMAN,

Fashionable Tailor.

'HARTFORD, KY. Coats; Pants and Vests cut, made and realred in the best style at the lowest prices.

PLAIN

Piain solld 18-kt. Gold Engagement and Piain solid 18-kt. Gold Engagement and wedding Rings furnished to order promptly; also Set Rings, with Amethist. Garnet, Topas, Moss Agate, Pearl or Diamond settings. Plain Gold 18-kt. Rings from $3 to $15 each. In ordering, measure the largest joint of the finger you desire fitted with a narrow plece of paper, and send as the paper. We inscribe any name, motto, or date free of charge. Rings sent hy mail an receilth of price, or hy express, with Vaught & Hudson also run a stage twice a day between Hartford and Beaver Dam, mornmotto, er date free of charge. Kings sent hy mail on receipt of price, or by express, with hill to collect on idelivery of goods. Money may be sent safely hy Express, Post-office Money Order, or Registered Letter. Refer to George W. Baln. C. P. BARNES & Bro., Jewelers, Main st., ht. 6th & 7th, Lonisville, Ky. ing and evening, connecting with all passenger trains on the L. P. & Southwestern rail-

The Hartford Seminary.

The Fourth sessinn of this school, under the control of J. E. Haynes, Principal, and Miss Emma Haynes, Assistant, will commence on Monday, February 22, 1875, and continue for twenty weeks. Terms Per Session

Primary Department $10 00 Senier

No conlingent fee. German children will not be charged for Ge One half of the tultion fee to be paid in ad-J. E. HAYNES, Principal.

ALONZO TAYLOR, Fashionable Barber and Hair Cutter,

HABTFORD, KY. Shop, on Market street, ever J. W. tore, where he is prepared to do all kinds of price, send for nor new illustrated price hat of Selh Thomas clocks. Clocks securely packed and sent to any address at our risk nn receipt nf price and fifty cents additio al for express cherges. Money may be sent safely by regis-

SEEM AMUSES

CLOCKS.

Manufacturers and dealers in all kinds of wooden coffins, from the finest rose wood casket to the cheapest paneer coffin. All kinds of coffin trimmings constantly on

Desier in

Garden Seed Pure Wines and Liquors for medical purpos

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Dyc Stuffs, etter-paper, Pens, Ink, Envelopes, Glass Putty, Carbon oit, Lampe and Chimneys.

WM. H. WILLIAMS, .. od

DRY GOODS,

Hardware, Queenmare,

HARTFORD, KY.

COUNTRY PRODUCE Bought at 1 " .

The Highest Market Price.

DEALERS IN DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, &c. .

THE CROW HOUSE, Opposite the Courthouse

Comfortable rooms, prompt attention, and iow prices. The traveling public are respectfully invited to give as a share of patronage. Every exertion made to render guests comfortable. STAGE LINE.

road. Passengers set down wherever they desire.

TAXPAYERS:

paid their taxes for the year 1874, are hereby notified that if they do not pay the same on ne-before the 25th of March, 1875, they will have before the 25th of March, 1875, they will have to pay's five per cent, penalty in addition to the amennt due and also costs of levy, commission, do., for I cannot wait longer. Immediately after that time, I will publish in the Harroon Heraun, a list of all the delinquent taxpayers an my books, and will circulate it after ever the county. There is not a taxpayer on my list that could not have paid up by this time, and if they will refuse, or neglect ta pay, up, I want the public to know it, and know who they ere. Those who want to rave the measures the five per cent, penalty, and the mornification and disgrace of having their names published to the world as delinquent taxpayers, had better pay up at nace. ere, had better pay up at unee.
THOS. J. SMITH,

HARTFORD LODGE, NO. 12, 1, Q. G. T. Mosts regularly every Thursday evening in Taylor's Hall. Translent members of the Order are cordially invited to attend.

JOHN P. BASSITS, W. C. T. WALLACELIRCELLE, W. Seny.

If you want a good clock at a moderate rice, send for nur new illustrated price last lered letter or express.

C. P. BARNES & BRO.

UNDERTAKERS. HARTFORD, KY.

Keep a fine hearse aiways ready to attend

Wagons and Buggies, constantly on hand or made to order. Parties

> Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN, HARTFORD, KY ..

Drugs, Medicines and Chemicals ine Trilet Scape, Fancy Hair and . Too Brush os. Perfumery and Fancy Toilet

GROCERIES,

Hats and Cape,

Leaf Tobacco,

I will sell very low for each, or exchange for all kinds of country produce. My motio is Quick sales and small profits." not ly

GROCERIES, COFECTIONERIES.

&c., &c.

Remember the place, west side public square, possite the court house, Hartford, Ky. and ly.

HARDWICK & NALL.

Which we will sell low for cash, or exchange er country produce, paping the highest market

HARTFORD, EY. VAUGHT & HUDSON, . . . PROPRIETORS

ATTENTION

All taxpayers of Ohlo county who have not

Sheriff of Ohio County, Hartford, Ky., March 9, 1875, no.10 3 m

AGRICULTURAL

Oue Pound of Pork From Four and a Half Pounds of Corn. Several years ago Prof. J. B. Lawes obtained 100 pound of pork from seven bushels of corn, or one pound of from depredating on his neighbor's ted, bartering the best meats, choicest pork from four and a half pounds of fields. pork from four and a nant pounds of corn. The grain was ground and moistened with water before feeding. A reader of the Herald always connected than loose pasturage.

3. That deep soil is more economical family to consume. Heaven never appointed man to live and work in this manner.

4. That deep tillage is essential to manner.

which is within less than half a pound of the quantity of meal required in Lawes' experiments; when the same kind of feed was used. In his management there was every advantage of sound corn, comfortable quarters, cleanliness, regularity of feeding and quality of breeding. It may be well to state that he has found the best sound corn double the value of a great deal that is used when badly grown or deal that the base about the first of June, and subsoil: in the sabout the first of June, and harrow them in.

Turn under the peas in September and sevent hat by right belong to his noble labor.

For The Hartford Berald.

CULTURE OF THE GRAPE.

NUMBER III.

October, by sowing one bushel of wheat or out the blood, put into a weak brine, and literary and intellectual culture is throwing around his home comforts and elegance that by right belong to his noble labor.

For The Hartford Berald.

CULTURE OF THE GRAPE.

NUMBER III.

We presume profit is the object the first of June, and harrow them in.

Turn under the peas in September and elegance that by right belong to this noble labor.

The deal tit remain one, two, or three is by keeping animals growing regularly system of rotation of crops—say cotton, from the day of their birth until they corn, wheat and clover. If lime can are ready for the slaughter house. There is an immense saving in food by cooking it.—Agricola in N. Y. Herald.

The Necessity of Grass Culture.

The cultivation of grasses and forage plants is an indispensable attribute of prosperity. Why are the lauds of Kentucky and Ohio so much more valuable than those of the cotton states, when we can produce a commercial article of prime necessity worth twice as much per acre as their products? It is because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude to join any reform movement until the current of popular opinion because we disregard rotation, exclude the perfect many than the products of the first popular opinion because the perfect many than the perfect ma every other crop but cetton and base all our chances of success upon a single card. In an agricultural point of view grass is the greatest boon ever and are slow to ev douated to man. It grows unceasingly day and night, wet aud dry, cold aud hot, and furnishes the cheapest stock feed extent. I have had hogs from the feed extent. I have had hogs from the feed extent is now advantage that the efforts and labors of others may afford them. They doubt the feasibility of the movement, markers think it may not be successful. seven to nine months old, weighing 250 pounds, and yet they have never to nine months old, weighing 250 pounds, and yet they have never they will wait and see. And while stakes to the acre. Vines, at 10 cents pigs himself. The farm-house or the 250 pounds, and yet they have never tasted anything but grass.

The land should be well drained, and if not sufficiently rolling to drain naturally, it must be done artificially. Water must, under ne circumstances be permitted to stand ou land devoted to grass culture, else the grasses sown will be destroyed in such places, and "wire grass" will. furnish a substitute as unprofitable as it is undesirable.

well and thoroughly pulverize the soil by rolling or dragging as may be necessary in order that the surface may be smooth and adapted to the use of the mover. This preparation is not altogether, necessary; in fact, clover sown in the fall or early winter is more certainty experiments. Its description of the movement would therefore be ephemeral. Hc admitted that the surface may be ephemeral. Hc admitted that it ought to succeed, but nevertheless, because he thought succeed, but nevertheless, because the fore the purpose, it should be to carefully washed with a large, soft viues, 8 feet, in rows 6 feet apart, 910, cloth dipped into milk and water—

at 10 ceuts each, $56; No. 14 wire (54 feet to the pound) 280 lbs. at 12½ cents, $35; carefully washed with a large, soft viues, 8 feet, in rows 6 feet apart, 910, cloth dipped into milk and water—by the heritage of the being swept with the long translation of the bound of the trelli tain to catch when sown on stubble, the trash serving to protect it while young, yet this is not neat farming, and should be practiced only in cases of emergency. Occasionally we have wet weather in August and September, and gress can thinks is right, and he will be held responsible if he fails to do so. I am $91,50, just the cost of the trellis. As wipe it off with a soft, dry cloth, and it Christmas a good pasture may be obtained, provided the ground is not too tious scruples prevent them from join-wet for pasturage at that time. The wet for pasturage at that time. The do not like the secret feature, and will to the beauty, pleasure and convenience most preferable method is, however, to thoroughly prepare the land as above described; the exceptions to the general rule should only be used when all right. Let no man violate bis coubetter preparations cannot be obtained. -Southern Farmer.

For the Farmer's Wife.

One of the greatest troubles of the sibility of that failure, should it come, neat and orderly housewife in the country results from muddy boots of those members of the family who have to work in the fields, stables and the barn-yard. The wet boots must be dried, and are generally left under the cupation of the great and good of every This quantity will make eight layers kitchen stove, where their presence is very disagreeable. Now, to have a neat kitchen, there should be a bootrack placed behind the stove, in which placed behind the stove, where their presence is age. Warriors, philosophers, orators, baked in pie-pans. Flour, water and sugar, boiled together and flavored with lemon, spread between the layers.

Better than anything else, and easier than a the damp boots may be placed to dry. ington, all have made her their fally obtained and applied, and a sure Such a contrivance has been found a vorite employment. Poets have sung cure for chilblains, is to soak the frozen great convenience. It has three shelves her praises from Herod to Virgil, and feet in strong warm lime water. Mix about four feet long, ten inches wide, down to our own Whittier. The cul-and placed a foot apart. At one end a tivation of the earth was the first, the wash. It will stop the itching in five boot-jack is fixed by binges so that, "heaven-appointed, employment of minutes, and will permanently cure in when not in use, it is folded against mankind." "Agriculture is the mothone end of the rack and secured by a er of all wealth."

nally cover the ground of successful employment of man." culture that we give them a place for the penefit of our readers;

pelling every man to prevent his stock horses ribby, and, as might be expec-

5. That the muck heap is the farin its results than in autumn, and conthroughout the season. The corn is increase at the same time its fertilizing bushel of corn thus prepared, after de-ducting 10 per cent. toll for grinding, to be worn out, since they are no longer are back neighborhoods in our Sonthducting 10 per cent. toll for grinding, and leaving only fifty-four pounds for the bushel, will give twenty pounds of pork, or at the rate of two and two-third pounds of corn for each pound of pork. When pork is five cents per pound he obtains at the rate of $1 per bushel for his corn. The farmer obtains by scalding the meal one pound of pork from two and two-thirds pounds.

To be worn out, since they are no longer or ductive. We now want the best and cheapest plan of renovating these lauds, so as to grow remunerative crops. To do this, we must have our lands charged with a good supply of vegetable matter to make the land lively and productive. This can be obtains by scalding the meal one pound of pork from two and two-thirds pounds. tains by scalding the meal one pound of pork from two and two-thirds pounds of corn—he gets 50 per cent. less, or at the rate af one pound of pork to the three and three-fourths pounds of meal, when mixed merely with cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the contribution of meal required in the cold water and the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water, which is within less than half a pound of the cold water the cold water the cold water that the cleek on Jove.—

Thought—trained, sharp, incisive though the damning in the agricultural world.

Thought—trained, sharp, incisive though the cold water, we can only call the cold water that the cleek of the cold water, which is becoming in the agricultural world.

Thought—trained, sharp, incisive though the damning in the agricultural world.

Thought—trained, sharp, incisive though the cold water, we can only call the cold water that the cleek of the cold water that the cold wat

deal that is used when badly grown or imperfectly ripened, or more or less seed per acre, and harrowing in well These facts show what may be done spring, you are ready for a judicious with clover seed lightly harrowed in the be procured at reasonable prices, it investigate the matter, and see where should be used where green crops are the profit is to be found. We will if necessary, in order to remove every turned under .- American Farmer.

"Neither Cold nor Hot-" There is a class of farmers in every as unprofitable as it is undesirable.

The proper preparation of the land is of prime importance. I would use a one-horse turning plow, running at a depth of three to four inches, follow with a subsoil as deep as the best double team could draw the same, harrow well and the movement would the movement would the movement would the movement would there to complete. Cost of the poor laborer wire (annealed) 2½ feet from the ground, and make fast to each post by means of a small staple or nail. Run a No. 14 it is the prime dish of the poor laborer wire (annealed) 2½ feet from the ground, and make fast to each post by means of a small staple or nail. Run a second wire on the top of society.

The Care of Oil Cloths.—An oil eloth requires careful treatment, and should never be scrubbed with a brushes that are not speaking of those whose conscient to the durability of the two, there is no science. But be who believes and acknowledges the movement to be a commendable one, and will not aid it because it may fail, must take the respon-

The Dignity of Farming.

for he, and such as he, are only to button. There is also a stand for Benjamin Franklin says: "There are rub off. Apply every evening until a cleaning boots at the front, which also three ways for a nation to acquire cure is effected. folds up when not in use, and the black- wealth: First, by war-this is robbery; To clean jewelry rub a brush-a ing hrushes are placed on the shelves second, by commerce—this is, frequent- tooth brush is best—first on a piece of behind the stand, and are out of sight, ly, cheating; then by agriculture—this common chalk, then on the jewelry, and when folded they hang down out is the only honest way whereby a man dampening the latter by breatbing of the way. The rack should be made receives a real increase of seed thrown upon it. of dressed pine boards, and stained into the ground, in a continual miracle, when powder gets into the flesh, by some dark, durable color.

When powder gets into the flesh, by change for goods.

The following views on farming and his virtuous industry." Washington says: "Agriculture in word by a mixture of sweet oil and cider viuegar, in equal quantities, applied to the surface. speech in Baltimore, and they so effect- healthful, most useful, and most noble should cultivate more land than he can country, the average narmer is singlest in the object is cleaued with soil reaction.

country, the average narmer is singlest in the object is cleaued with soil reaction.

This powder has a pink color, and was first suggested by the German chemist and tools rickety and rusty, cattle and

One of the most disheartening facts connected with agriculture, has been tinues a regular course of feeding be added to it that will enlarge it, and the unwillingness on the part of too throughout the season. The corn is ground and nincty pounds of hot water poured on every sixteen pounds of meal, and after standing twelve to eighteen hours, the whole mass becomes thick feed. He finds by measured experiment that the value of the ured experime ly mixed with cold water. One tired down by continual cropping, and agricultural districts against every new

We presume profit is the object the grape-grower has in view, and the way he can make the most with the least section of the country, who wish the Grange movement well, but will not at least one-fourth more vines, and one-half gallons of water, and some Grange movement well, but will not at least one-fourth more vines, and connect themselves with it. Indecisive, thrice as many stakes, as to plant and hop yeast. Let it stand three or four cautious, conservative in their uature; trellis an acre. Of necessity, the vines weeks, and you will have excellent they stand aloof, and can never be ingood, they look calmly on; or watch cents stakes will last but few years, suspiciously from a safe distance, ready and we will say nothing of the inconwhen the moment of victory comes, to venience of tving and training to stakes, but not from farmers themselves—the in rows 6 feet apart. Run a No. 14 it is the prime dish of the poor laborer > comparison. eases of the grape next week. J. B. C.

> > HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

CAKE WITHOUT Eggs .- Take one cup of sugar, one-fourth cup of butter, one cup of milk, two tablespoonsful of baking powder rubbed in the flour dry. To be had during the next 30 days, in Agriculture has been the chosen oc- Flour enough to thicken as other cake.

"Agriculture is the moth- a few applications. Let the feet remain in until the dead skin will frecly

An inlimate mixture of one part of Paris rouge (oxide of iron) with six Yet, notwithstanding the encomiums parts of carbonate of magnesia is one cenefit of our readers;

1. That the area under cultivation of poets, the praise of philosophers, the example of the illustrious and the for silver, but for iron, steel, copper, or should be within the limits of the capital and labor employed: or in other of all civilization, it is still an undenidipped in a little water or alcohol, and words that on impoverished soils no one able fact that in many sections of our then rubbed until nearly dry, when should cultivate more land than he can country, the average farmer is shiftless the object is cleaued with soft leather.

ORANGE CAKE.—Three cups sngar one cup of butter, one-half cup milk fruits and grains for greenbacks, and keeping the offal of his farm for his ters pound raisins chopped fine, one beaten to a froth, one cup butter, tw cups sugar, three cups flour, one-half cup of sweet milk, teaspoonful of half a teacup of molasses; pour boiling water upon the meal until a thick batter is formed; then bake in a very hot

To CLEAN LIME OUT OF THE TEA tatoes with the skins on. This softens the lime, which is easily washed out. PUFF CAKE.—Two cups flour, two cups sugar, one cup sweet milk, two eggs, two tablespoonsful of baking powder; add the milk last.

freezing. CHEAP VINEGAR.—Take a quantity expense—houestly—is the right way with him. Net profit is a potent argument, and it should be. Now let us ment, and it should be. Now let us water they were cooked in, strain it, of common Irish potatoes, wash them take one acre of vines trained to stakes, particle of the potato. Then put this counting cost and profit. As a stake potato water into a jug or kcg, which is required for each vine, and as we set near the stove, or in some place can't grow the vinc to any length, they where it will be kept warm, and add injury, and are slow to avail themselves that the loss in fruit thus sustained is meat. Butchers are sometime in the their neighbors and friends are laboring each, amount to $121; stakes, at 5 miller's pigs are generally fed wholewith heart and hand for the common cents each, $60; total, $181. Those 5 somely, and kept clean; and you may depend on pork or bacon bought di- make rectly from them. Pork should not be fat, the meat should be close in the seize a fair sharc of the spoils. Such meu, while not open enemies, do the order infinitely more harm. Opposition is expected from certain classes, but not from farmers themselves—the last of the spoil of the content of the spoil of the sp will retain a bright look. In purchasing an oil cloth, it is very desirable to obtain one that has been made several years, as the longer it has lain unrable. An oil cloth made within the year is hardly worth buying, as the paint will be defaced in a sbort time.

GREAT BARGAINS

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING,

BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, CAPS

> -AND-NOTIONS.

We are determined to close out in order to make room for our Spring Stock.
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

Ali kinds of Country Produce teken in ex-

GEO. KLEIN,

GEO, KLEIN & BRO. HARTFORD, KY.,

Dealers in house fernishing good, for general kitchen end table use. We keep constantly or band, the celebrated ARIZONA COOKING STOVE.

JNO. P. BARRETT,

WALLACE GRUELLE.

JNO. P. BARRETT & CO.,

Newspaper, Book,

AND

JOB PRINTING,

Corner Court Place and Piccadilly street.

HARTFORD, KY.

Job Printers,

THE SAINT LOUIS TIMES.

Daily, Weekly and Tre Weekly.

The Largest Weekly Published in the United States.

sion of the great Political questions in which the whole nation is interested, to the defence of Constitutional Democratic Government, and towage a relentless wer on any end eil perties and factions which seek to destroy or pervert

The Daily Times

Will be issued every dey, except Sondey, in e folio form, coutaining thirty-two colums of the latest news—Foreign and Domestic. A reduction in price has been made in proportion to the reduction in sise.

The Sunday Times.

Will be issued regularly as a Mammoth Donble sheet, containing sixty-four columns of News, Literary and select Reading, and will be furnished to the Daily Subscribers without extra charge. The unparalled increase of the circutation of this edition is evidence of its popularity, and no pains will be supered to make it.

ierity, and no pains will be spared to make it worthy of public confidence and patronage.

The Tri-Weekby Times,

A fonr-page sheet, will be meiled to substribers every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday mornings. This edition is designed to supply those who have not the mail facilities to obtain the daily issues, and yet desire a paper oftener than once a week.

The Weekly Times,

"Memmoth Edition," containing sixty-four coinmus of the latest end west important news and earefully selected reading metter of all kinds—a paper for the Farmer, the Merchant, the Student, the Politician and the General Reader. At the end of the present year the circulation of this edition, at the present rate of increase, will not be less than 100,000 conics.

TERMS-POSTAGE PREPAID.

price list. Address

cream of tartar, one teaspoonful of Seven sizes for cither coal or wood. House-keepers are delighted with its superior cooking and haking. It has no equal anywhere. Call and see for yourself.

AGAIN 1 1875

LOUISVILLE WEEKLY

COURIER-JOURNAL

Continues for the present year its liberal ar rangement, whereby, on the 31st of December, 1875, it will distribute impartially among its $10,000 KETTLE.—Boil in the kettle Irish po-tatoes with the skins on. This softens The Courier-Journal is a long-established live, wide-ewake, progressive, newsy, bright and spicy peper.

No other paper offers such indocements to subscribers and cinh egents. Circulers with full particulars and specimen copies sent free on epplication.

Terms, $2.00 a year and liberal offers to clubs.
Daily edition $12, Postage prepaid on all papers without extra charge. Address W. N. HALDEMAN, President Conrier-Jonrael Company Louisville, Ky.

> E. SMALL'S TRADE PALACE, HALTFORD, KY.

Dealer in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gents and hoys custom made CLOTHING.

A No. 1 stock of BOOTS AND SHOES,

HATS AND CAPS,

FURNISHING GOODS,

CLOAKS, BLANKETS,

FI'RS, NO FIONS, &C.

f also keep a large and well selected stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, Sold at New York Prices.

All kinds of COUNTRY PRODUCE Bought at the highest market price.

Plow Stocking

GENERAL WOODWORK.

The undersigned would respectfully an-nonnee to the citisens of Ohlo county, that 'hey are now prepared to do all kinds of WOODWORK at their new shop in Hartford. They have se-enred the services of a competent workmen to STOCK PLOWS, and they guarantee setiafanti a, hoth es to work end reices, in ell cases. They will

WAGONS AND BUGGLES. and will make and furnish COFFINS AND BURIAL CASES

at the lowest possible prices. Call and see us before engeging your work elsewhere. PATRONAGE SOLICITED. and entisfaction guaranteed. By close epplication to business we hope to merit the suppor of our friends, MAUZY & HURT.

Jan. 20, 1875. JOSEPH VAUGHT,

BLACKSMITH.

HARTFORD, KY.

The Times Compeny teke placeure in an-nonucing to the people of the Great West that they ere now publishing the Largest, Cheepest and Best Democratic Paper in the country. It is their design to make this journal occupy the field in the. Western States open for a Cheap, Newsy and Sound Democratic Paper, giving ell the news, Political, Religious, Scientife, Social and Commercial—one whose editories columns will be devoted to a feir discussion of the west Political practices in the control of t Ali kinds of Blecksmithing done in good style end at the lowest price for each only. HORSE-SHOEING. nade a specialty. Will shoe eli round for $1 .25

L. J. LYON. Dealer ln

Groceries and Confectioneries. HARTFORD, KY. Keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of ail kinds of Groceries and Confectioneries, which he will sell low for cash, or exchange for all kinds of COUNTRY PRODUCE.

I will also pay the highest cosh price for hides, sheep pelts, eggs, hatter, bacon, potatoes heaus, etc. nol ly

JAS. A. TROMAS,

JAS. A. THOMAS & CO. HARTFORD, KY.

Deelers in staple and faucy

DRY GOODS. Notions, Fancy Goods, Ciothing, Boots and Shoes, liats and Caps. A large assortment of these goods kept constantly on hand, and will be sold at the very lowest each price.

J. F. YAGER. Sale and Livery Stable, HARTFORD, KY.

desire to inform the citizens of Hartford and vicinity that I am prapared to farnish Saddenand Herness Stock, Buggies and couveyances of allkinds on the most reasonable terms. Horses taken to feed or board hy the day, week or month. A liberal shere of patronage solicited. JNO. M. KLEIN

L. F. WOERNER,

Repairing neatly and promptly done. REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMP-

ION OF AMERICAN ART TARTE

PROSPECTUS FOR 1875—RIGHTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA, ISSUED MONTRALT.

A MAGNIFICANT CONCEPTION WON-DERFULLY CARRIED OUT.

DERFULLY CARRIED OUT.

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want The successive failures which have so invariably foilowed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the ladificance of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and on ability to meet it were shown, the public at once railied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triample—THE ALDINE.

The Aldian while leaded with effect for regularity, has none of the temporary or simely interests characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant misceilany of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a cellection of pictures, the rerest collection of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a freeh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldiane will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may slaim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class. The Aldiane is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without compatition in price of character. The possessor of a complete volumes, for text times its cost; and then, there is the chrome, besides!

The national feature of The Ald ne must be taken in no narrow sease. True art is composited, the rolling is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself to the percentage of the work not an executive extra and instruction endeance of the didne, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American exists, one thet will discriminate our grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while pleading before the patrons of The Aldiane, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American eritists, attention will always be given to becimen for foreign sources.

The eritetic Illustrati

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

Rvery subsciber for 1875 will receive a beau-tiful portrait, in oil colors, of the seme achie dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.

"Man's Unselfish Friend"

All orders promptly executed. Special et eation given to erders by meil. Write for price list. Address

Write for Wr

THE ALDINE ART UNION. The Union owns the originals of oil The Al-dine pictures, which with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,000 subscribers 100 different pieces, valued at ever $2,500, are distributed as seen as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the uext incooding issue of The Aldine. This feature only applies to subscribers who pay for one year in eavance. Fall particulars in circular sent on application inclosing a stamp.

TERMS: THE LIVEST. CHEAPEST AND BEST DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN THE WEST.

One Subscription, entitling to The Aldise one year, the Chromo, and the Art Union, Six Dollars per annum. In Advance. (No charge for postage.) Specimen copies of The Aldine, 50 cents The Aldine will hereatter be chtainable only by subscription. There will be no redoced or club rates; each for anheriptions must be sent the publishers direct or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publisher, succept in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac simile signature of Jan. Surron, President.

CANVASSERS WANTED. Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser, will receive full and prompt in-formation by applying to THE ALDINE COMPANY, 58 Maiden-Lane, New York. Unquestionably the best Sustained Work of the kind in the World.

HARPERS MAGAZINE

ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press. The ever increasing circulation of this ex-cellent monthly proves its continued adapta-tion to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it pene-trates every month, we must consider it as en-when we think into how many homes it penetrates avery month, we must consider it as entertainers, of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won no by oppeal to stupid prejudices or deprayed fastes.—Boston Globa.

The character which thir Magacine possesses for veriety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to e great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good, and not ovil, all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Engle

TERMS. Postage Free to all Subscribers in the United Deliy, 7 copies per week, single copy, $8 60 per year. In clubs of five or more $7 50. Snaday Times, single copy, $2 00 per year. In clubs of five or more $1 75.

Tri-Weekly Times, $4 00 per year. In clubs of five or more $3 75. Ten per cent. Commission ellowed on ahove rates to those who will act as agents. Money can be deducted when subscriptions are sent. All money should be sent hy express, freight et expense of purchaser, for 2 25 pay volume. Single volumes, hy Post Office Order, Draft, or Express to the address of THE TIMES COMPANY.

St, Louis. Mo.

Back numbers can be supplied at any time.

A complete set of of Harper's Magasiue, now compriseing 49 Volumes, in meat cloth binding, will be sent hy express, freight et expense of purchaser, for 2 25 pay volume. Single volumes, hy meil, postpaid, 33 0c. Cleth cases, for hinding, 58 cents, hy mail, postpaid.

Address HARPER 2 BOTHERS,

New York. Weekly Times, $1 50 per yeer. In clubs of five or more $1 25. Back numbers can be supplied at any time.